Protecting God's Children - Making the Church a safe environment for all, particularly children and at-risk adults, is a major priority of the administration and staff of Saint Aloysius Church. Please take a look at the posters and "Safe Environment & Standards of Conduct Policy" that are posted on the bulletin board in the Gathering Space of the Church and on our website at <http://www.saintaloysiusonline.org/protecting-children>. If you have any questions or would like to learn more about how to make our church, homes and community safer, please contact Jen Petrillo at 732-370-1515 ext. 311 or jpetrillo@saintaloysiusonline.org.

Anyone with an allegation is also encouraged to provide that information to local law enforcement authorities.

Dear Parish Family-

As we begin the Christmas Season (ending on the Solemnity of the Baptism of the Lord, Jan. 10) I want you to be aware of the good that has been unfolding even amid pandemic; the parish, with the assistance of the St. Vincent de Paul Society, distributed gifts to 134 families through the Adopt-A-Family Christmas Ministry. Additionally our parish men, of the Knights of Columbus (the organization some US Senators consider a terrorist organization) assisted an additional 154 families this Christmas. One family was about to lose their home were assisted by your generous donations are now safe and sound in their home for the foreseeable future (more than $14,000 was raised in an incredibly short time frame). The total number of local families assisted was 289, not even a pandemic could halt the good cheer! THANK YOU on behalf of all those assisted and to our ministry volunteers who spent countless hours to make the magic happen!

As a pastor I receive many Christmas Cards both paper and virtual. I have all displayed in my office on the Altar we used during the lock down earlier in the year around the Relic of St. Aloysius. I have entrusted all of you to his prayers and care.

My favorite Christmas Card this year came as an e-card from Pro Terra Sancta. This is a charity whose offices are in Milan, Italy but who work in the Holy Land, their name "Pro Terra Sancta" means 'For the Holy Land'. The card is in the form of a video with a small group of Pro Terra Sancta Co-workers making a pilgrimage through the streets of Bethlehem to the Church of the Nativity. As I watched it I could not fail to notice how few people were in Bethlehem due to the pandemic. The Church of the Nativity is one of the holiest sites in the Christian world and one usually shoulder to shoulder with pilgrims waiting long hours in line to venerate the star, the place where Jesus was born, in the cave under the Church yet the video is devoid of any people but the little pilgrim group of Pro Terra Sancta Co-workers. If you have a chance I invite you to view it, it is a very uplifting and beautifully executed video card showing the City of Bethlehem, it's people, the crafts, local business that support pilgrims and great interior shots of the Church of the Nativity and the Cave below it. The entrance to the Church is called 'the door of humility' because pilgrims must stoop down to enter, just as Jesus stooped down to become one of us. Check it out – <https://youtu.be/645LihjWMyE> There will be a warning in Italian that asks you to accept cookies (Hey its holiday); 'accetto' means accept and 'rifiuto' means decline, click either one and the video card will play. I recommend you go to full screen to see the vivid imagery.

There was a special show on Fox News hosted by Peter Hegseth on Christmas night titled the "Battle for Bethlehem" (a rather unfortunate title). Whatever you may think of Fox News, it was a pretty fair assessment of the sad state of affairs in Bethlehem and the extreme minority of Christians left there, somewhere between 1%-10%, and difficulties our fellow Christians face living there. I believe it is available online and worth attention to get a picture of what our fellow Christians face while they maintain the Holy Site of the Nativity of the Lord.

Peace and Good - Fr. Bambrick

Prayer to Our Lady Health of the Sick

O Mary,
you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and of hope.

We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm.

You, Salvation of the Roman People, know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial.

Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings
and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection. Amen.

Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God.
Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial,
but deliver us from every danger,
O glorious and blessed Virgin.

Amen.

A Coronavirus Prayer

Jesus Christ, you traveled through towns and villages “curing every disease and illness.” At your command, the sick were made well. Come to our aid now, in the midst of the global spread of the coronavirus, that we may experience your healing love.

Heal those who are sick with the virus.

May they regain their strength and health through quality medical care.

Heal us from our fear, which prevents nations from working together and neighbors from helping one another.

Heal us from our pride, which can make us claim invulnerability to a disease that knows no borders.

Jesus Christ, you traveled through towns and villages “curing every disease and illness.” Come to our aid now, that we may experience your healing love.

Jesus Christ, healer of all, stay by our side in this time of uncertainty and sorrow.

Be with those who have died from the virus. May they be at rest with you in your eternal peace.

Be with the families of those who are sick or have died. As they worry and grieve, defend them from illness and despair. May they know your peace.

Be with the doctors, nurses, researchers and all medical professionals who seek to heal and help those affected and who put themselves at risk in the process.

May they know your protection and peace.

Be with the leaders of all nations. Give them the foresight to act with charity and true concern for the well-being of the people they are meant to serve. Give them the wisdom to invest in long-term solutions that will help prepare for or prevent future outbreaks. May they know your peace, as they work together to achieve it on earth.

Whether we are home or abroad, surrounded by many people suffering from this illness or only a few, Jesus Christ, stay with us as we endure and mourn, persist and prepare.

In place of our anxiety, give us your peace.

Jesus Christ, heal us.

Prayer composed by Kerry Weber, Executive Editor, America Magazine
