

Come out for a night of fun with your parish family!

Join us at the Lakewood Blue Claws on Friday, September 10th, at 7:05 pm.

Our St. Aloysius Choir will be singing God Bless America for the 7th inning stretch, and our students at Mother Seton Academy will be featured during the game, too!

Tickets are on sale, and there are two options:

$12 for entrance only

$16 for admission AND a hot dog, drink, and ice cream

You can buy tickets after Mass this weekend or at the parish office during the week.

Checks are payable to St. Aloysius Church, and your tickets will be waiting for you at Will Call the night of the game.
