The Diocese of Trenton reports any allegations of sexual abuse to the appropriate law enforcement agencies. Anyone with an allegation is also encouraged to provide that information to local law enforcement authorities.

Dear Parish Family,

Last Sunday, we celebrated the Solemnity of the Baptism of the Lord, which marked the end of the Christmas Season. On Monday, January 12th, we started the First Week of Ordinary Time. Last week, a parishioner asked me if the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord on February 12th was the end of the Christmas Season. This used to be the case before the reforms of Vatican II. Now, the Christmas Season starts with the First Mass of Christmas and ends with the Solemnity of the Baptism of the Lord.

Ordinary Time is the part of the Church year that is not Advent, Christmas, Lent, or Easter. It is the longest season in the liturgical calendar. Ordinary Time is divided into two parts: from the Baptism of the Lord until Ash Wednesday, which is the shorter period of about eight weeks, and from after Pentecost Sunday until the Solemnity of Christ the King. Depending on the year, Ordinary Time can last between 23 and 27 weeks.

“Ordinary Time” does not mean the opposite of extraordinary, nor does it mean something dull or unimportant. The Latin name for this season, “Tempus Ordinarium,” translates to “Measured Time” in English and better captures its meaning as proper or ordered time. During Ordinary Time, we celebrate the fullness of Christ’s mystery.

The Church’s liturgy is based not only on the mystery of Christ but also on God’s work of creation. God told the first parents to care for creation and be good stewards of what he made. Pope Francis highlighted this in his Encyclical Laudato Si. The colors of the Liturgical Cycle come from creation itself. Green, the most common color in nature, represents life. During the Christmas season, we use evergreens to bring life and festivity to winter.

The Church uses green during Ordinary Time to symbolize hope, life, and spiritual growth. St. Hildegard of Bingen spoke of “Viriditas,” or the “Greening power of God,” at work in the world, just as God works in us during this season. St. Hildegard wrote, “O most honored Greening Force, You who roots in the Sun; You who lights up, in shining serenity, within a wheel that earthly excellence fails to comprehend. You are enfolded in the weaving of divine mysteries. You redden like the dawn, and you burn: flame of the Sun.”

The Liturgical cycle is like a great wheel with no beginning or end, continuing without interruption until the Lord returns in glory.

Peace and Good – Fr. Bambrick

We are looking for prospective volunteers who want to live out their faith through service, in community, and with purpose. These characteristics capture the essence of the St. Vincent de Paul mission centered on love and life. Vincentians see their neighbors in need as equal to themselves and worthy of love, regardless of their difficult situation. If you would like to learn more about this ministry and become part of it in serving others, please consider attending our next General Meeting on Monday, January 26th at 7:00pm in Morello Hall. Become involved in a ministry that goes to the very heart of Christ's teaching to love and care for all people.

Love Your Neighbor, Live Vincentian

The Rosary Altar Society will hold their next General Meeting on Sunday, February 1st in Morello Hall following the 8:30am Mass. All women of the parish are welcome to attend.

Our next food drive will be the weekend of January 17-18th to benefit the Jackson Food Pantry. Requested items include canned fruit and vegetables, canned soup, microwavable soups and meals, macaroni and cheese, ramen noodles, cereal, personal hygiene products, and dog food.

Proper Reception of Holy Communion

As Catholics, we fully participate in the celebration of the Eucharist when we receive Holy Communion.

Proper reception of Holy Communion involves approaching the Altar with reverence, and a bow, responding "Amen," and choosing to receive the Host either on the tongue (open mouth, extend tongue) or in the hand (make a "throne" with two hands, consume immediately, stepping aside), all while being in a state of grace (no unconfessed mortal sin), fasting (for one hour prior to Mass), and with clear intention for faith.

The key is respect, recognizing the Eucharist as Christ's Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity, and consuming it fully before returning to your pew for prayer.

We welcome
Megan and Matthew Carilli
to the parish. We are so happy you have joined us.

Amen
