THE DIOCESE OF TRENTON is committed to the initiatives outlined in the U.S. Bishop's Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People and to its own policies and guidelines in regard to the reporting and investigation of sexual abuse allegations involving minors.

If you have been sexually abused as a minor by a member of the clergy or anyone representing the Catholic Church, or if you know of someone who was, you can report that abuse through the diocesan ABUSE HOTLINE: 1-888-296-2965 or via e-mail at abuse-line@dioceseoftrenton.org.

The Diocese of Trenton reports any allegations of sexual abuse to the appropriate law enforcement agencies. Anyone with an allegation is also encouraged to provide that information to local law enforcement authorities.

Dear Parish Family,

The news has been carrying a lot of stories about the “eggscalating” price of eggs. When I was young, a thousand years ago when dinosaurs roamed the planet, folks would egg your house on mischief night. In those days it was also very chilly, and we would hide in the bushes spraying our garden hose at anyone trying to egg our house ,which was more fun! Anyway, today if someone were to egg your house, you would probably be ok with it with the current price of eggs; you could catch them and put them in the fridge saving a few bucks!

Well, don't you know, apparently folks are now egging houses in the spring instead of the fall! The priest's house was egged not once, but twice in March! No, not with chicken eggs, way too expensive these days, but with decorative plastic eggs for a worthy cause!

As I am sure you're all aware, the Jackson School District has been having some funding issues. When districts have funding issues they tighten the budget, and when the budget is tightened, the first victims are usually the arts. Jackson Liberty High School Marching Band, through the years, has been an award winning band. I can remember when they were chosen to march in the Champion of Roses Parade in Pasadena, California many years ago, told you I was old!

The Jackson Liberty Lion Marching Band Parent Association is having their annual fundraiser called “You've been EGGED!” Our priest's house was egged twice by “a friend” and how it brought a smile to my face. I had visitors while all the eggs were on the lawn, and they were coming in when some Orthodox children were being picked up for school. One of the children asked their mother, “What are all those for?” The mother replied, “Oh, I forgot, it's their Halloween”. Well, that was the cherry on the cake baked with eggs! LOL. The display is just for 24 hours, and then gone as quick as it came.

So, if you would like to have some mischievous fun, are young at heart, or just want to help out a darn good cause, here is the information. If you do not know anyone to egg feel free to choose us as your target, but if you have a relative or friend in Jackson, feel free to spread the love and send some love to these young people in the band! You can contact Patti Carroll @732-616-4250 or Claudia Palermo 732-275-5054. Have fun!

This Sunday is the 4th Sunday of Lent, also called Laetare Sunday. The penitential color moves from violet to rose, music is more uplifting, and flowers are permitted for the Altar, all of this signifying the lightening of the penitential practices at the mid-point of Lent, encouraging us to look toward the Resurrection at Easter now just a few short weeks ahead of us. The name “Laetare” (meaning Rejoice) is taken from the first word of the Latin Introit for the Mass from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah 66:10-11, “Rejoice, Jerusalem, and all who love her. Be joyful, all who were in mourning; exalt and be satisfied at her consoling breast.”

On a sad note, George S. Hassler, the owner and founder of the George S. Hassler Funeral Home, died on Saturday, March 15th, his funeral was Saturday, March 22nd. George was a very generous benefactor of our parish over the last 47 years. He was a past president of the Holy Name Society (2 terms), an Usher in his younger days, and served as Parish Trustee from 2005-2018. He was a very good man who treated each family with dignity and respect. Condolences to his son Brian and the entire Hassler Family.

Peace and Good Fr. Bambrick

Prayer to St Michael The Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.

Amen

Rosemary Pettingill

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls and the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen

In the Catholic Church, the anointing of the sick is a sacrament that is administered to a Catholic “who, having reached the age of reason, begins to be in danger due to sickness or old age”. There is no need to wait until a person is at the point of death to receive the Sacrament. The Sacrament may be received at any time during a person’s illness, especially before surgery or treatment. We suggest calling to receive the Sacrament before a person is in grave danger of death as it is not always possible to have a priest available at the actual time of death. If you would like to schedule the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick for a loved one, please contact the parish office.
