Protecting God's Children - Making the Church a safe environment for all, particularly children and at-risk adults, is a major priority of the administration and staff of Saint Aloysius Church. Please take a look at the posters and "Safe Environment & Standards of Conduct Policy" that are posted on the bulletin board in the Gathering Space of the Church and on our website at <http://www.saintalloysiusonline.org/protecting-children>. If you have any questions or would like to learn more about how to make our church, homes and community safer, please contact Jen Petrillo at 732-370-1515 ext. 311 or jpetrillo@saintalloysiusonline.org.

To report the sexual abuse of minors call the diocesan hotline 1-888-296-2965 or abuseline@dioceseoftrenton.org. Please note: The Diocese of Trenton reports any allegations of sexual abuse to the appropriate law enforcement agencies. Anyone with an allegation is also encouraged to provide that information to local law enforcement authorities.

Dear Parish Family,

Happy Easter! Yes, it is still Easter and will be for several weeks. Today we celebrate 'Divine Mercy Sunday' also known as the Second Sunday of Easter; named for the revelations given to St. Faustina Kowalska, a polish nun. Pope St. John Paul ordered this Second Sunday of Easter to be known as Divine Mercy Sunday to spread the message of God's Divine Mercy found in the death and Resurrection of His Son Jesus Christ, the messenger of God's Mercy. On this glorious day we will be having the first of our socially distanced Covid-19 safe First Communions; they will take place later in the day Sunday and by ticket only. We offer blessings and prayers for these children as they receive the Lord Jesus in the Most Holy Eucharist for the first time on this most special Divine Mercy Sunday.

I received numerous and many notes about how beautiful the Church looked for Easter. The goal was to provide something special during this long Covid-19 worldwide pandemic. Based on the comments I would say we achieved that end. Several long time founding families noted they thought it was the most beautiful in all their years in the parish. That is indeed high praise. I think the effort was well worth it. Normally we have a great crew of volunteers who assist every year but due to the pandemic restrictions that was not possible this year. So the staff took on the job with gusto, especially Pat and Joey Tun our Youth Minister. I want to thank our parish secretary Pat for brainstorming as early as the Epiphany! Her husband constructed the Cross and she stained and decorated it. There were many iterations until she found the exact one with the most impact, a great deal of thought and time was put into making this Easter special for everyone whether live or Live Stream. The Icons were gifted to the parish by the Iconographer Mary Grieco who is a parishioner. She donated the 'No Me Tangere', the encounter between Mary Magdala and Jesus in the Garden which graces the front of the Ambo. Along with the head of Christ, called 'Pantocrator' and the head of Blessed Virgin Mary called 'Theotokos' which are on the right and Left of the Sanctuary respectively. She also gifted us a St. Nicholas and a St. John the Baptist, the forerunner (which are not on view at the moment). These are original hand painted Icons using the traditional Egg Tempera method on Board. Thank you to Mary Grieco as these added to the solemnity of Easter.

Hang in there, things are starting to improve with the pandemic, we just need to hold on a little bit longer but it seems some light is visible at the end of the tunnel!

Peace and Good – Fr. Bambrick

Daily Prayer for the Year of St. Joseph

Hail, Guardian of the Redeemer, Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

To you God entrusted his only Son;

In you Mary placed her trust; with you Christ became man.

Blessed Joseph, to us too,

Show yourself a father and guide us in the path of life.

Obtain for us grace, mercy and courage, and defend us from every evil. Amen

Prayer to Our Lady Health of the Sick

O Mary,
you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and of hope.

We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm.

You, Salvation of the Roman People, know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial.

Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings
and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection. Amen.

Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God.
Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial,
but deliver us from every danger,
O glorious and blessed Virgin.

Amen.

A Coronavirus Prayer

Jesus Christ, you traveled through towns and villages “curing every disease and illness.” At your command, the sick were made well. Come to our aid now, in the midst of the global spread of the coronavirus, that we may experience your healing love.

Heal those who are sick with the virus.

May they regain their strength and health through quality medical care.

Heal us from our fear, which prevents nations from working together and neighbors from helping one another.

Heal us from our pride, which can make us claim invulnerability to a disease that knows no borders.

Jesus Christ, you traveled through towns and villages “curing every disease and illness.” Come to our aid now, that we may experience your healing love.

Jesus Christ, healer of all, stay by our side in this time of uncertainty and sorrow.

Be with those who have died from the virus. May they be at rest with you in your eternal peace.

Be with the families of those who are sick or have died. As they worry and grieve, defend them from illness and despair. May they know your peace.

Be with the doctors, nurses, researchers and all medical professionals who seek to heal and help those affected and who put themselves at risk in the process.

May they know your protection and peace.

Be with the leaders of all nations. Give them the foresight to act with charity and true concern for the well-being of the people they are meant to serve. Give them the wisdom to invest in long-term solutions that will help prepare for or prevent future outbreaks. May they know your peace, as they work together to achieve it on earth.

Whether we are home or abroad, surrounded by many people suffering from this illness or only a few, Jesus Christ, stay with us as we endure and mourn, persist and prepare.

In place of our anxiety, give us your peace.

Jesus Christ, heal us.

Prayer composed by Kerry Weber, Executive Editor, America Magazine
