Dear Parish Family,

The Cardinal Proto-Deacon of the Holy Roman Church, Cardinal Mamberti, on Thursday, May 8, Feast of Our Lady of Pompeii, announced “I bring you news of great joy, we have a Pope”. And what a day of greatest joy to hear the name of the American Augustinian, Robert Cardinal Prevost! In the last bulletin, I introduced you to him, knowing he had a pretty good shot, given what the cardinals said they wanted in a new Pope. While other cardinal front runners checked most of the boxes, he checked off all the boxes. Our secretary said she wished she were in Rome for the announcement; I wished I were at Villanova for the announcement, as a fellow alumnus, I am sure Villanova was going crazy!

The new pope always sends some signals not only by words but by visuals and gestures. The newest Peter chose the name Leo XIV, signaling his unswerving commitment to the Church's social doctrines and teachings begun in earnest by the father of the social doctrine, Pope Leo XIII, a truly great pope, who revolutionized the way the Church, engaged in the social sphere, his Encyclical, Rerum Novarum, which means “of New Things”. Certainly, an American Pope is a “new thing!”

The new Holy Father also came out on the Loggia dressed in the traditional attire the popes use when they make their first appearance, so he is in continuity with tradition, if not necessarily a traditional man. He respects the office of Peter. He greeted the crowds with a “Peace be with you,” the first words of the Risen Lord, so appropriate to the Easter Season we are living in. He showed himself to be a religiously spiritual man aware of the liturgical season and honoring it. He lovingly greeted the people of his former diocese in Peru; he was a missionary priest then missionary bishop. He only left the post a short time ago. So he showed human warmth and fond memory, and he greeted the Roman people, especially, whom he now shows his pastoral solicitude toward, and speaks in their language.

In the short time on the balcony he expressed a great deal of gravity, seriousness, warmth, compassion, and religious devotion. In the end, he let it be known he was elected on the Feast of Our Lady of Pompeii and prayed with all the Hail Mary.

As I said in my column last week, I hoped for a pope devoted to the Virgin Mary and whoever is elected, we Catholics love him because we love Peter, the first pope who most closely resembles all of us and our foibles and failures, the Apostle who loved Jesus more than anyone else.

Long live Pope Leo XIV, servant to the servants of God! Tu Est Petrus!

Peace and Good – Fr. Bambrick

Join us on this six-day intensive icon painting course where we will captivate you in the art of the Byzantium painting technique. During the course we'll write (paint) the icon of the Virgin Mary holding the child Jesus. Besides Christ, no other subject has been more depicted than Mary, the Theotokos (Gree for "Mother of God", literally God-Bearer").

Registration is required and course space is limited. Please register early to secure your spot. A non-refundable deposit is required to reserve a place in this workshop. Register at theodoreicons.com/jackson.

Pick up a sweet treat after all Masses this weekend courtesy of the Altar Rosary Society. Ladies will be in the Gathering Space with a variety of baked goods. Pick up gifts for teachers, neighbors, friends—anyone with a sweet tooth! Donations will help the Society purchase linens, vestments, and candles for the Altar.

"YOU CAN DRAW"- a drawing workshop for "non-artists" - Join us for a fun workshop where participants will choose a feather and learn to draw it through guided, step-by-step instruction. If you always wanted to learn to draw but were intimidated, or want to improve your technique, this is the class for you. Jenny Santa Maria has spent years working with people. All materials are provided—just bring yourself. No prior experience is needed. The workshop will be held in Morello Hall on Sunday, June 29th from 3-5pm. This weekend, Saturday, May 17th, following the 5 PM Mass, and Sunday, May 18th, after the 10:30 AM Mass, the Altar Rosary Society, along with our Religious Education families, will hold a May Crowning of the Blessed Virgin Mary. If weather permits, the Crowning will take place at the Our Lady of Fatima Grotto after the Masses. If the weather does not cooperate, the event will be moved to the Church.

May is the month we celebrate the Blessed Virgin Mary. Join us as we recite the Rosary prior to the Daily Mass Monday through Friday at 8:00am in the Church.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls and the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen

In the Catholic Church, the anointing of the sick is a sacrament that is administered to a Catholic "who, having reached the age of reason, begins to be in danger due to sickness or old age". There is no need to wait until a person is at the point of death to receive the Sacrament. The Sacrament may be received at any time during a person's illness, especially before surgery or treatment. We suggest calling to receive the Sacrament before a person is in grave danger of death as it is not always possible to have a priest available at the actual time of death. If you would like to schedule the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick for a loved one, please contact the parish office.

Prayer to St Michael The Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen

Becoming a Man After God's Own Heart

That Man is You is a men's faith building program that honestly addresses the pressures and temptations that men face in our modern culture, especially those relating to their roles as husbands and fathers.

walking with purpose

SO MUCH MORE THAN A BIBLE STUDY

At Walking with Purpose, we believe that four key factors influence spiritual growth. When these four converge, the odds of a woman opening her heart fully to Christ dramatically increases. What are those factors? It's the influence of a key relationship, pivotal life circumstances that make you think on a deeper level, encountering relevant content, and learning to use the basic spiritual tools. Want to learn more? Join our bible study for woman in September. Registration has begun where we will offer Opening Your Heart for new participants, and Discovering Our Dignity for those returning. Registration forms can be found on the parish website or stop by the parish office for more information.

On Monday, April 28th, a large group of teens, families, and young adults from our parish went to the movies to see the Blessed Carlo Acutis documentary "Roadmap to Reality." It was fantastic! One of our teens sent in this reflection:

"It's often easy to become discouraged when you sit in the pews on Sunday and see the lack of young people in attendance or read about Catholic's misunderstandings on the teachings about the Eucharist. If our goal is just to live in this world and rely on ourselves, many could see how one might fall into despair. However, when one realizes that God has raised up young saints for times such as this, you know that He turns the ordinary to extraordinary. This is the case for the young soon to be Saint Carlo Acutis. Recently, I was blessed with the opportunity to attend the movie released about his life with my family and many other Catholic families. What struck me most was that he was an ordinary, Nike wearing, soccer playing kid. What struck me as extraordinary was his love for the Eucharist that made everything he did a service for the Lord. In making the extraordinary the priority, his life became a life lived for Christ and his witness brought people comfort, hope and Jesus.

He knew the best way for people to come to the Lord was through the Eucharist. For this reason he created a website documenting Eucharistic miracles. What an example for our young people today to watch a young man give of himself by using the internet, often a source of such struggle and temptation, as a resource for good and growing in holiness! To follow the theme of Carlo's use of technology for betterment of self, the movie documents a group of Catholic teens who have to leave their coveted phones behind on pilgrimage to Italy learning about their faith. What begins as a fun trip and time to spend with friends becomes a metanoia as they learn more and more about Christ and the example of Carlo Acutis. The pinnacle of their trip is praying in Assisi in front of the body of this soon to be saint. The teens look upon a boy their age and realize now is not a time for being lukewarm. It's a time to be on fire for the Lord like Carlos. The teens in the movie and the families in that theater know what is at stake as the devil fights for souls, and together we thank God for the example He gave us in this young man. May Blessed Carlo Acutis intercede for them and continue to be an example to lead all, but especially our young people to Christ!"

Blessed is the Mother who lets the Lord be her guiding hand, whose faith brings her family courage, whose wisdom comes from God, and whose children will stand and honor her. We include in our prayers.....
