Dear Parish Family,

It has been a while since I have mentioned the Synod on Synodality. The final phase will begin this fall, followed by a document written by Pope Francis. The Holy Father desires a more “Synodal Church”, by this he means a Church that listens. By ‘Church’ he means the “People of God”, and who are the People of God? The People of God are all the Baptized; laity, deacons, priests, bishops, those in consecrated life...in other words, everyone, or as the Holy Father likes to say, “Todos, Todos, Todos”.

Over the last year, the National Bishops Conferences held national listening sessions or round table discussions. These were added last October after the parish and diocesan listening sessions, and will all go to Rome for the final phase this fall. The National Conference of Catholic Bishops of the United States a few weeks ago, published a synthesis from our country’s national listening sessions, the title is a mouthful, “National Synthesis of the People of God in the United States of America for the Interim Stage of the 2021-2024 Synod” You can read the entire document on the USCCB Website.

The Synthesis is long, and a bit dry, but it contains some very useful tidbits. The participants across the country called our Church both a “safe harbor” and “a fiery communion”. I thought those were great ways to describe our National Church. Participants saw the local parish Church as a safe space to go in times of need, a safe harbor from the storms of life. This was a pretty straightforward description. “Fiery communion” bore out a dual meaning. They saw the Church as very much alive, warm and ablaze, but also a Church in tension, and at times, polarized.

They describe the tension as both good, and bad, helpful, and destructive. Good and helpful when people listen to each other, even when they strongly disagreed, with respect for each other’s opinions; bad and destructive when it leads to polarization, an “us vs. them” attitude.

The Synthesis also called for a formation in evangelization. They found that parishes who have Bible Study, prayer groups, and foster a deep sense of community, were the best safe harbors and fiery communions. We offer all of those so that was nice to hear. In fact, in late September/early October we will be adding a women’s only Bible Study aimed at women 20-60 called “Walking With Purpose”, look for it in the bulletin.

Finally, they said, “where grace and gratitude abound, God’s presence is evident”. Amen to that!

Peace and Good – Fr. Bambrick

In the Catholic Church, the anointing of the sick is a sacrament that is administered to a Catholic "who, having reached the age of reason, begins to be in danger due to sickness or old age". There is no need to wait until a person is at the point of death to receive the Sacrament. The Sacrament may be received at any time during a person's illness, especially before surgery or treatment. We suggest calling to receive the Sacrament before a person is in grave danger of death as it is not always possible to have a priest available at the actual time of death. If you would like to schedule the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick for a loved one, please contact the parish office.

Baby News—

Nick and I are overjoyed to share that we welcomed our son Declan James on Thursday, May 16th at 8:42 pm. Declan was definitely a decent size at birth, 7 lbs 4 oz and 19.2 inches. He is named for two saints, the Irish saint Declan (who pre-dates St. Patrick) and St. James the Apostle, since the Camino pilgrimage has a special place in Nick's heart. The name Declan literally means "full of goodness."

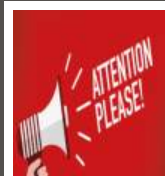

My recovery is going well, and Baby Declan is thriving. We received wonderful care, and we know that the Lord is guiding and sustaining our little family thanks to the prayers of so many!

Thank you all for your love, prayers and support.

With Love and Gratitude,
Jen and Nick Petrillo

Thank you to all those who participated in the Corpus Christi procession, and especially those volunteers who gave generously of their time and talent for the procession to be possible! ### Prayer to St Michael The Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world
seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen

Prayer for the Synod on Synodality

We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name. With You alone to guide us, make Yourself at home in our hearts: Teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it. We are weak and sinful; do not let us promote disorder. Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path nor partiality influence our actions. Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right. All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time, in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen

Joseph Varriello

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls and the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen
