THE DIOCESE OF TRENTON is committed to the initiatives outlined in the U.S. Bishop's Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People and to its own policies and guidelines in regard to the reporting and investigation of sexual abuse allegations involving minors.

If you have been sexually abused as a minor by a member of the clergy or anyone representing the Catholic Church, or if you know of someone who was, you can report that abuse through the diocesan ABUSE HOTLINE: 1-888-296-2965 or via e-mail at abuse-line@dioceseoftrenton.org.

The Diocese of Trenton reports any allegations of sexual abuse to the appropriate law enforcement agencies. Anyone with an allegation is also encouraged to provide that information to local law enforcement authorities.

Dear Parish Family-

On this last Sunday in June, we bid farewell to Fr. Jim Smith, our Parochial Vicar of five years; hard to believe it has been five years since we received a newly ordained priest, now he goes off as a seasoned priest assuming his own Pastorate at St. Isaac Jogues Church in Evesham Township. If you wonder where that is, it is in Burlington County between Voorhees and Mount Laurel. When I was newly ordained, there were 126 parishes in the Diocese, several years later the Bishop announced the erection of a 127th parish, St. Isaac Jogues in Evesham. Today, by contrast, we have 97 parishes but St. Isaac's is still there! If you visit him there, and have been to St. Mary in New Monmouth, you will recognize the architectural style as both Churches shared the same architect, St. Isaac's being the first of the two built.

If you want to pester him you can write him at St. Isaac Jogues Church, 3 Lord Place, Evesham, N.J. 08053 or give a call at 856-797-0999 or e-mail saintisaacs@stisaacjogues.org. There is a reception after his personal 12 noon 'Solemn Mass' in Morello Hall, please come out to wish him well. FYI, beginning in July there will be no 12 noon Solemn Mass. Masses will be the regular parish scheduled Masses of Sat 5pm, Sun 7am, 8:30am and 10:30am.

Fr. Jim Smith came to us a newly ordained priest with great enthusiasm, devotion and dedication. Those qualities never faded and only grew stronger. He had a keen interest in technology which he was able to put to full use during the pandemic and which greatly benefited the parish. He has great interest in the bible and has maintained a wonderful bible study during his five years. He enjoyed interacting with the RCIA and our Religious Education Program. He was a great resource for our Religious Education Team. His love for liturgy was apparent from his first week here and that developed into his 'Solemn Mass' at its own time and which I am sure he will carry with him to St. Isaac's.

Speaking personally, he was a good brother priest, he was easy to live with and we enjoyed many conversations over the years. Plus, he is a terrific sour dough bread baker, sometimes I thought we were running a Monastery Bakery! He learned the art of pizza making from me and far excelled my abilities, most Fridays we enjoyed homemade pizza and some Sundays too! We all wish him well as he goes forth to preach the word and as the Code of Canon Law directs the Pastor: to Teach, to Govern and to Sanctify. Speaking from long experience, the Teaching part comes easy, the Sanctify part is a little harder and the Governing part is the most difficult. The First Pastorate experience is a very exciting one for a priest. Being a pastor is not always easy, but it is always fulfilling. I am very happy for Fr. Jim Smith, sad he is leaving, but overjoyed he is becoming a pastor. I wish him well, many blessings and happiness. Ad Multos Annos, Vivat!!

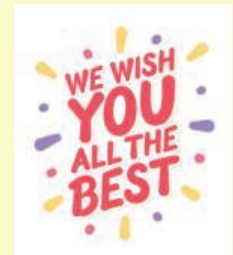

Peace and Good – Fr. Bambrick

This is Not Goodbye, but a Fond Farewell

As I look back over the last five years of my time as Parochial Vicar here at St. Aloysius Parish, it is filled with fond memories. From my first Mass here to the many weddings, baptisms, confirmations, first reconciliations, and funerals, it is hard to say what I did not do. This is really the hallmark of a good assignment, especially for a newly ordained priest. It has been said that a priest will never forget his first assignment, and I can say with all sincerity that is 100% true. My experience at St. Aloysius will be the measure by which my future assignments will be gauged, not just because of the various challenges we faced together, but because of who you are as a parish. In just five short years, we walked together through liturgy, seminars, Bible studies, Christian initiation, catechesis, live streaming, and even a couple "Stump the Priest" podcasts! Throughout it all, what you may never have considered is how you, as a parish, and the People of God, were continuing to shape and form this newly ordained priest into the pastor he will soon become. For that, I am eternally grateful. I am also grateful to Fr. Bambrick, whose careful instruction and mentorship helped prepare me for this next chapter in my priesthood. And I am especially grateful to the staff of St. Aloysius, as well as the many volunteers and catechists, who devote so much of their time to making this parish a beautiful place to pray, to worship, and to learn. And so, it is with an open heart and mind that I embrace the future, but will always look lovingly on the people whose prayers, support, laughter, and tears, made me the priest I am today. This is not goodbye, but a fond farewell. And if you are ever near Marlton, you have a friend at St. Isaac Jogues.

Peace, Fr. Jim

Join us today in Morello Hall (cafeteria) after the 12:00pm Mass for a light reception as we bid warm wishes and good luck to Fr. Jim on his new assignment. Thank you to the Knights of Columbus for providing the food.

The Parish and Religious Education offices will be CLOSED on Fridays during the months of July and August.

Planning for Summer Finances. When you are making your summer plans, please don't forget your offering to the church. Did you know you could sign up to have an automatic withdrawal from your account go right to the church? Go to the parish website or use the QR code to set up your online giving. Thank you for your continued support.

Prayer for the Synod on Synodality

We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name. With You alone to guide us, make Yourself at home in our hearts: Teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it. We are weak and sinful; do not let us promote disorder. Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path nor partiality influence our actions. Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right. All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time, in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen.

Prayer to St. Michael

Saint Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into Hell Satan and the other evil spirits who prowl about the world for the ruin of souls. Amen

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls and the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen
Please pray for the Souls of our recently departed

The required book - "My Peace I Give You"-John 11-21. is available at Amazon.com for $7.95 "The purpose of group Bible study is to better understand God's word in order to live it – not to have intellectual or emotional mastery of it" -- Rena Duff, Sharing God's Word Today

BAPTISM—First-time parents requesting Baptism for their child must be registered parishioners of the parish and attend a BAPTISM PREP CLASS, with the godparents. Classes are held at 7:00pm virtually. The purpose of the class is to update parents and godparents in their knowledge of Baptism and encourage them to be faithful to their promise to raise their children according to the teachings of the Catholic Church. Parents wishing to Baptize their child are asked to contact the parish office to register for a Baptism Prep Class.

Have you or someone you love missed out on one or more of their sacraments? Do you know someone who wants to be Catholic? We have a fantastic community in our RCIA program led by a team of wonderful faith filled people who act as catechists and can help them prepare for the gift of encountering the Lord in the Sacraments of the Church. Our parish would love to help them be all they can be in the faith! New sessions will begin in the fall. Call the parish office for more information.

Have you considered answering the call to join the Society of St Vincent dePaul.? Our Vincentians are the point of connection between our neighbors and the help they need to break out of systemic poverty., Whether that help comes in the form of friendship, faith or service, Vincentians are the catalyst for making a positive difference in the lives of others. The St. Vincent dePaul Society will hold their monthly meeting Monday, June 26th at 7:00pm in Morello Hall. New members are always welcome. If you can not join us, please consider a gift to St. Vincent dePaul. Your gift will provide housing, food and/or utilities for a family in Jackson. Donations can be made using the monthly collection envelope or you can make a donation in the parish office. Thank you for your continued support.

The Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick used to be called “the Last Rites” or “Extreme Unction” because the usual recipient was a dying person. This sacrament is also offered for those facing serious illness or surgery, and for those of advanced years. Please do not wait until a person is at the point of death to receive the Sacrament. A careful judgment about the serious nature of the illness is sufficient. If you or a family member would like the Anointing of the Sick, please contact the parish office.

Please see below for reminders about our July events, as well as updates on a special opportunity coming up in November (but the planning/fundraising will start this summer!). To RSVP to any of the following, please contact Mrs. Jen Petrillo at 732-370-1515 ext. 311 or jpetrillo@saintaloyusonline.org. **Please keep in mind that it is a diocesan policy that parents should be copied on e-mail communication between parish staff/volunteers and those under 18.*

"Welcome Fr. RJ" Event: This summer will be a time of farewells but also new beginnings. Fr. Jim will be going to serve the community of St. Isaac Jogues, but Fr. RJ Ballacillo will be coming to our parish! Come join us in the Youth Room on Friday, July 7th from 7:00 pm to 9:00 pm as we give Fr. RJ a warm welcome from our AYM community. Teens are encouraged to please bring a favorite snack to share. Those who are interested are asked to please RSVP by Wednesday, July 5th.

Mission Jersey: This summer, our diocese is again offering "Mission Jersey" for teens in grades 8 through 12. The event includes service projects, prayer, and connecting with fellow teens from local parishes. The Ocean County Mission Jersey day is Thursday, July 27th from 9:00 am to 5:00 pm at Visitation parish in Brick. Each participant is asked to contribute a $10 donation, to help offset the cost of project materials. Participants should bring a bagged lunch and labeled water bottle, and will need to submit a permission form to Mrs. Jen Petrillo in advance. Please know that space is limited. Our parish will continue to accept registrations through July 20th if space allows, but participants are encouraged to RSVP as soon as possible so that we can reserve your spot.

"NCYC:" The National Catholic Youth Conference will be taking place in Indianapolis, Indiana from November 16th-18th of this year! Our diocese is organizing a trip to this amazing event. This year's theme is "Fully Alive," and you can visit the diocesan website for more info: https://dioceseoftrenton.org/ncyc Several of our parish staff/volunteers are committed to attending as chaperones, so that we can bring a group of teens from our parish. Please know that we will be engaging in fundraising efforts over the course of the next several months. No commitment is required at this time, but teens are encouraged to check out the website and begin thinking and praying about whether they might like to participate in this year's NCYC.
