THE DIOCESE OF TRENTON is committed to the initiatives outlined in the U.S. Bishop's Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People and to its own policies and guidelines in regard to the reporting and investigation of sexual abuse allegations involving minors.

If you have been sexually abused as a minor by a member of the clergy or anyone representing the Catholic Church, or if you know of someone who was, you can report that abuse through the diocesan ABUSE HOTLINE: 1-888-296-2965 or via e-mail at abuse-line@dioceseoftrenton.org.

The Diocese of Trenton reports any allegations of sexual abuse to the appropriate law enforcement agencies. Anyone with an allegation is also encouraged to provide that information to local law enforcement authori-

Dear Parish Family,

This Sunday, July 28th, in the global Catholic Church, is World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly. Pope Francis chose the theme, taken from Psalm 71, “Do Not Cast Me Off in My Old Age”. The Holy Father Francis wrote, “to call attention to the fact that, sadly, loneliness is the bitter lot in life of many elderly people, so often the victims of the throwaway culture.” A Plenary Indulgence is granted to anyone who visits a sick, lonely, or disabled elderly person on the fourth annual World Day of Grandparents and the Elderly on July 28th, along with the usual conditions to obtain a plenary indulgence; detachment from all sin, to receive sacramental confession and Holy Communion, and to pray for the pope’s intentions.

This chosen Sunday always falls closest to the feast of St. Joachim and Anne, the grandparents of Jesus, which is July 26th. Last year the Holy Father, speaking on the relationship between old and young said, “How much we need a new bond between young and old, so that the sap of those who have a long experience of life behind them will nourish the shoots of hope of those who are growing. In this fruitful exchange we can learn the beauty of life, build a fraternal society, and in the Church, be enabled to encounter one another and dialogue between tradition and the newness of the Spirit.”

I will never be a grandparent, and when I ponder this prospect, I think I should have some tinge of sadness, but I can discern not even a tiny bit of sadness within myself. That is because I am convinced that grandchildren have the better part. I have no doubt, and am convinced being a grandparent is one of life’s greatest joys, but having had wonderful grandparents, whose memory still lingers as I enter my senior years, convinces me I received the greater share as a grandchild.

Grandparents are a treasure, and being a grandparent is a joy. Each year I have written about my own experience with my grandparents, whom I fondly recall regularly. Having grandparents, and for me a great-grandparent as well, was one of the great joys of childhood. I thought of this as I watched Donald Trump’s granddaughter give a speech at the RNC Convention two weeks ago. She mentioned how her grandfather plied them with candy and soda. My grandparents were poor, but they spoiled us non-the-less. My fraternal grandparents always had iced tea and rye bread, and rice pudding. My maternal grandparents gave us jellied slice candy and chocolates. My great-grandmother gave us half a saucer of coffee with the other half cream, and three sugars! Yup, very sweet and I drank coffee like that well into adulthood with people horrified at the sight of it! LOL

Grandparents bring joy into the lives of their grandchildren. We saw our grandparents every week, and in summer, spent whole weeks under their care. My cousin and I would go fishing, and see our grandfather drinking beer in his car by the water and sneak up on him. He would bribe us by giving us money to buy French fries at the fishery in exchange for not telling our grandmother we saw him! What fun we had with them and how many wonderful memories. I keep pictures of them all in my room, and looking upon them, the joy of my time with them is brought into the present!

This day we honor all of them, those who have passed to their reward, we celebrate those who are with us, and we hold sacred their abiding love for us. Whether in heaven or on earth, we are truly blessed to be their grandchildren!

Peace and Good – Fr. Bambrick

On World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly 2024

Bishop David M. O'Connell, C.M., invites the faithful to show appreciation and care for their spiritual fathers and grandfathers through a gift to the third annual

Diocesan Retired, Elderly AND Infirm Priests FUND

Collection to be held in all parishes of the Diocese of Trenton
July 27-28, 2024
 PLEASE BE GENEROUS

How can we care and provide for them?

A message from Bishop David M. O'Connell, C.M., on the Collection for the Diocesan Retired, Elderly and Infirm Priests Fund

On the weekend of July 27-28, as we celebrate the feast of the grandparents of Jesus, I am also mindful of the 85 priests of the Diocese of Trenton who have "borne the heat of the day (Matthew 20:12)" in our parishes and institutions, serving and ministering to us and who are now retired. They are truly our "spiritual grandparents." Many continue to offer Masses and share the Sacraments in our parishes. How can we thank them for the witness of their lives of faith? How can we help take care of and provide for them?

As Bishop, I invite all the clergy and faithful of the Diocese, once again, to show the generosity for which I have come to know you so well by contributing to the third annual collection for the retired, elderly and infirm priests of the Diocese. They, too, deserve our love and gratitude in their twilight years!

May God bless your kindness and shower his abundant graces upon all our beloved grandparents, "spiritual grandparents" and all the elderly of our Diocese.

The diocesan collection coincides with World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly. To learn more about this annual observance, and to find a link to a message from Pope Francis, visit www.TrentonMonitor.com and click on NEWS>DIOCESE.

Looking for a Mass to attend when you are traveling? Please visit Masstimes.org to find a Catholic Church and Catholic Mass near you.

Religious Education registration for the 2024-2025 year, is open through August 30th. Save $50 if you register before August 30th! Parents of Kindergarten and First grade students, contact the Religious Education office to register (732-370-0500 ext. 318). Returning registrants, please check your email for the link to register. Important reminders: to receive First Communion in Grade 2, your child must be signed up beginning in Grade 1. If you have any questions, please contact us at 732-370-1515 extension 318.

The Parish and Religious Education offices will be closed on Fridays during the months of July and August.

Prayer to St Michael The Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen

Prayer for the Synod on Synodality

We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name. With You alone to guide us, make Yourself at home in our hearts: Teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it. We are weak and sinful; do not let us promote disorder. Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path nor partiality influence our actions. Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right. All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time, in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen

The Annual Enrollment is a beautiful gift for special times in life and for the eternal rest of our faithful departed. We are very happy to pray for you and your loved ones.

The Annual Enrollment Mass is celebrated the First Friday of each month at 8:30am for a period of one (1) year—12 months.

In the Catholic Church, the anointing of the sick is a sacrament that is administered to a Catholic "who, having reached the age of reason, begins to be in danger due to sickness or old age". There is no need to wait until a person is at the point of death to receive the Sacrament. The Sacrament may be received at any time during a person's illness, especially before surgery or treatment. We suggest calling to receive the Sacrament before a person is in grave danger of death as it is not always possible to have a priest available at the actual time of death. If you would like to schedule the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick for a loved one, please contact the parish office.
