THE DIOCESE OF TRENTON is committed to the initiatives outlined in the U.S. Bishop's Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People and to its own policies and guidelines in regard to the reporting and investigation of sexual abuse allegations involving minors.

If you have been sexually abused as a minor by a member of the clergy or anyone representing the Catholic Church, or if you know of someone who was, you can report that abuse through the diocesan ABUSE HOTLINE: 1-888-296-2965 or via e-mail at abuse-line@dioceseoftrenton.org.

The Diocese of Trenton reports any allegations of sexual abuse to the appropriate law enforcement agencies. Anyone with an allegation is also encouraged to provide that information to local law enforcement authori-

Dear Parish Family,

Last Sunday, the reading from the Second Book of Kings, was the account of the multiplication of the 20 barley loaves offered to the Prophet Elisha, who instructed the man to give it to the large crowd to eat, and all were fed from this meager donation, with an abundance left over. The Gospel of John also recounts the gift a boy, with 5 loaves and two fish, gives to Jesus to feed a crowd exceeding 10,000 people, and the Apostles gather fragments left over in 12 wicker baskets.

Speaking about Jesus' multiplication of the loaves and fishes, Pope Francis noted three gestures from the account that are mirrored by Jesus at the Last Supper, and by the faithful in each Mass; these are "offering, giving thanks, and sharing". The Pope reflected, "The Gospel tells us about a boy who has five loaves and two fish," then, the pope noted the boy's gesture of offering, as well as our own, is an acknowledgment that "we have something good to give, and we say our 'yes,' even if what we have is too little compared to what is needed." This offering he noted, is lived out in each Mass, as "the priest offers the bread and wine and each person offers himself, his own life," he said. This offering becomes the real presence of Jesus in the Eucharist. "It is a gesture that may seem small, when we think of the immense needs of humanity," the pope acknowledged, "... but God makes it the material for the greatest miracle there is: that in which he himself — himself! — makes himself present among us for the salvation of the world."

The Holy Father then noted, our offering is intimately linked to the next gesture, that of gratitude. The pope urged us to use these words when we pray to the Father: "All that I have is your gift, Lord, and to give thanks, I can only give you back what you first gave me, together with your Son, Jesus Christ, adding to it what I can." He went on to teach that "each of us can add a little something," He insisted, "What can I give to the Lord? What can the little one give? Our poor love. Saying, 'Lord, I love you.' We poor people: Our love is so small! But we can give it to the Lord, the Lord welcomes it."

These gifts then lead to sharing, the pope explained, "In the Mass is communion, when together we approach the altar to receive the body and blood of Christ: the fruit of everyone's gift transformed by the Lord into food for all. It is a beautiful moment, that of communion, which teaches us to live every gesture of love as a gift of grace, both for the giver and the receiver," This action of the Mass is facilitated by the Priest who is in the person of Christ, without the Priest there is no Eucharist.

Today, we welcome Fr. Chris Colavito, the Trenton Diocese Vocation Director, who will be preaching about vocations to the priesthood at each Mass. Sunday is the also the Feast of the great French Priest, St. John Mary Vianney, the patron saint of all priests. Some of you may remember Fr. Chris who served in the parish when he was a seminary student.

If someone has a calling to the priesthood, I invite them to reflect on the Holy Father's message of "offering, giving thanks and sharing". When considering a call to the priesthood, a man may think himself inadequate or unworthy, or maybe, he does not have the skill set, but as the Holy Father remarked on the miracle of the loaves and fishes, "we have something good to give, and we say our 'yes,' even if what we have is too little compared to what is needed." God's grace will supply, multiply, increase and make abundant. We need only tell Jesus we offer our love, and this will be sufficient for him to feed thousands.

We thank Fr. Chris Colavito for sharing his reflections and the gift of the Priesthood he shares with us.

Peace and Good – Fr. Bambrick

Prayer to St Michael
The Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen

Prayer for the Synod on Synodality

We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name. With You alone to guide us, make Yourself at home in our hearts: Teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it. We are weak and sinful; do not let us promote disorder. Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path nor partiality influence our actions. Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right. All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time, in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen

The Annual Enrollment is a beautiful gift for special times in life and for the eternal rest of our faithful departed. We are very happy to pray for you and your loved ones.

The Annual Enrollment Mass is celebrated the First Friday of each month at 8:30am for a period of one (1) year—12 months.

In the Catholic Church, the anointing of the sick is a sacrament that is administered to a Catholic "who, having reached the age of reason, begins to be in danger due to sickness or old age". There is no need to wait until a person is at the point of death to receive the Sacrament. The Sacrament may be received at any time during a person's illness, especially before surgery or treatment. We suggest calling to receive the Sacrament before a person is in grave danger of death as it is not always possible to have a priest available at the actual time of death. If you would like to schedule the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick for a loved one, please contact the parish office.

SO MUCH MORE THAN A BIBLE STUDY

Walking with Purpose is a weekly Bible study for adult women of all ages and from all walks of life. We gather in small groups to share our faith on a personal level and it is a personal journey that provides the opportunity to search one's heart as we make the commitment to pray and study scripture and catechism. This ministry aims to bring women to a deeper personal relationship with Jesus Christ from a selected study guide. We strive to link our everyday challenges and struggles with the solutions given to us through the teachings of Christ and the Catholic Church.

This fall, we will offer the series Opening Your Heart beginning Thursday, October 3 at 7:00pm in the parish office. Registration is required but there is no fee to join other than the purchase of the book. Books may be purchased through the parish office or from Walking With Purpose directly at walkingwithpurpose.com. Online and in person registration will begin next week. If you have any questions, contact Pat at the parish office or email: Walkingwithpurposeklaudia@gmail.com.

We look forward to sharing this new study with you.

Have you or a loved one missed out on some sacraments or do you know someone considering becoming Catholic? Our RCIA program is here to support you, with a dedicated community of catechists eager to help you prepare for the Sacraments of the Church and the joy of meeting the Lord. Let our team of faith-filled individuals assist you on this journey towards a deeper connection with your faith. New sessions begin September 18th, so seize the opportunity now! Reach out to our parish office today for more information and take the first step towards enriching your spiritual life.

Pilgrims of Hope: Pope Francis Declares
