THE DIOCESE OF TRENTON is committed to the initiatives outlined in the U.S. Bishop's Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People and to its own policies and guidelines in regard to the reporting and investigation of sexual abuse allegations involving minors.

If you have been sexually abused as a minor by a member of the clergy or anyone representing the Catholic Church, or if you know of someone who was, you can report that abuse through the diocesan ABUSE HOTLINE: 1-888-296-2965 or via e-mail at abuse-line@dioceseoftrenton.org.

The Diocese of Trenton reports any allegations of sexual abuse to the appropriate law enforcement agencies. Anyone with an allegation is also encouraged to provide that information to local law enforcement authorities.

Dear Parish Family,

Yesterday marked the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi, the patron saint of ecology, animals, and Italy. As Pope Francis reminds us in his Encyclical Letter Laudato Si, "We have only one heart, and the same wretchedness which leads us to mistreat an animal will not be long in showing itself in our relationships with other people. Every act of cruelty towards any creature is contrary to human dignity." Saint Francis revered all God had created, and it is fitting that he is the patron of all ecology.

St. Francis is famously remembered for his "conversation" with a wolf that was terrorizing the town of Gubbio. In this encounter, Francis and the wolf reached a compromise: the wolf would stop threatening the citizens, and in return, the townspeople would feed him. The wolf and the townsfolk agreed, and soon the wolf became not only tame but also friendly, going door to door in Gubbio, greeting people and eating from their hands. The bond between the wolf and the people grew so strong that when the wolf died just two years later from old age, it was given a proper burial and a tombstone. Later, the people built a small church and entombed the wolf in it. You can still visit the wolf's tomb in Gubbio today in the Church of St. Francis of Peace.

The other story involves a time when Francis felt weary because people were not listening to his preaching or taking it to heart. To find peace, he retreated to the Eremo delle Carceri above Assisi, where he began to preach to the birds. The tree where the birds gathered still stands there today. St. Bonaventure tells us, "He came to a spot where a large flock of birds of various kinds had come together. When God's saint saw them, he quickly ran to the spot and greeted them as if they were endowed with reason....He went right up to them and solicitously urged them to listen to the word of God, saying, 'Oh birds, my brothers and sisters, you have a great obligation to praise your Creator, who clothed you in feathers and gave you wings to fly with, provided you with pure air and cares for you without any worry on your part.'...The birds showed their joy in a remarkable fashion: They began to stretch their necks, extend their wings, open their beaks and gaze at him attentively."

"He went through their midst with amazing fervor of spirit, brushing against them with his tunic. Yet none of them moved from the spot until the man of God made the sign of the cross and gave them permission to leave; then they all flew away together. His companions waiting on the road saw all these things. When he returned to them, that pure and simple man began to accuse himself of negligence because he had not preached to the birds before."

Br. Thomas of Celano, who wrote an earlier biography of St. Francis, told this same story but added this sentence: "From that day on, [Francis] carefully exhorted all birds, all animals, all reptiles, and also insensible creatures, to praise and love the creator..." (see 1 Celano XXI).

Reflecting on St. Francis' openness to all God's Creation Pope Francis reminds us, "If we approach nature and the environment without this openness to awe and wonder, if we no longer speak the language of fraternity and beauty in our relationship with the world, our attitude will be that of masters, consumers, ruthless exploiters, unable to set limits on their immediate needs. By contrast, if we feel intimately united with all that exists, then sobriety and care will well up spontaneously."

As we celebrate St. Francis, may we imitate him in intimately uniting ourselves to all that exists in creation so that sobriety and care well up in us spontaneously for the good of our Common Home!

Peace and Good – Fr. Bambrick

October is the month of the Holy Rosary Feast Day—October 7

Pope Leo XIV asks everyone to pray the rosary each day in October. "I invite everyone to pray the rosary every day during the coming month -- for peace -- personally, with your families and in your communities," he said.

To honor Pope Leo's request, join us Monday-Friday at 8:00am in the Church, prior to the Daily Mass, to recite the rosary.

World Mission Sunday, October 19, 2025 is the one day when the entire Church-gathers in prayer and sacrificial giving to proclaim that the Gospel is for all peoples, in all lands. There will be a special collection the weekend of October 18-19 for this important mission.

Congratulations to all our students who received the Sacrament of Confirmation on Thursday, October 2.

May the Holy Spirit continue to guide and inspire you.

Prayer to St Michael The Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen

Florian Roland and Frances Green

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls and the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen

Thank you for your continued support

Recently we've seen a trend where the missals have had their ribbons braided together which makes it impossible for people to use them. These books are meant to last for years as they include all three cycles. The ribbons are there to help people mark where the prayers and readings for the week are located. Please be respectful so they can last as long as possible as they are expensive. Thank you so much for your anticipated understanding.

This 22-week foundational course is designed for women who are new to WWP, as well as those with more Bible study experience. Join us as we examine the core questions that we wrestle with if we want to experience all that God has for us.

Discovering our Dignity "DOD"
(recommended after completing OYH)

Women of the Old and New Testaments were as flawed and broken as we can be, yet the power of God worked in their lives. Discovering Our Dignity will allow you to learn from their experiences and uncover ways to deal with unwanted circumstances and deferred hopes.

Through their stories recorded in Scripture, women of the Bible reach out to touch our "present" in a tender, honest, and loving way—woman to woman—with ancient wisdom, sage advice, and insights from sorrowful failures and emotional wounds.

"AYM" (St. Aloysius Youth Ministry) offers opportunities for those in grades 8 through 12 to connect with fellow teens who share their Catholic faith. We offer a variety of spiritual, service, and social events throughout the year. Please see below for reminders about upcoming events. To RSVP to any of the following, please contact Mrs. Jen Petrillo at 732-370-1515 ext. 311 or jpetrillo@saintaloyusonline.org. Events are open to teens in grades 8 through 12.

Please keep in mind that it is a diocesan policy that parents should be copied on e-mail communication between parish staff/volunteers and those under 18.

Save the Date: Drive for Good Counsel Homes: We are doing another donations drive for the moms and babies of Good Counsel Homes after our 5:00 pm and 10:30 am Masses on the weekend of October 4th and 5th! Teens are needed to assist with collecting and sorting donations before and after each of those Masses. Please RSVP by September 29th if you are able to volunteer. Stay tuned for more info in the coming weeks.

AYM Pumpkin Carving: Looking to enjoy a fun fall afternoon? Our 4th annual AYM Pumpkin Carving event will take place on Sunday, October 26th from 11:30 am to 1:00 pm in the Youth Room. Teens are invited to attend the 10:30 am Mass, and we will start immediately following Mass.
