THE DIOCESE OF TRENTON is committed to the initiatives outlined in the U.S. Bishop's Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People and to its own policies and guidelines in regard to the reporting and investigation of sexual abuse allegations involving minors.

If you have been sexually abused as a minor by a member of the clergy or anyone representing the Catholic Church, or if you know of someone who was, you can report that abuse through the diocesan ABUSE HOTLINE: 1-888-296-2965 or via e-mail at abuse-line@dioceseoftrenton.org.

The Diocese of Trenton reports any allegations of sexual abuse to the appropriate law enforcement agencies. Anyone with an allegation is also encouraged to provide that information to local law enforcement authorities.

Dear Parish Family,

Last week Cardinal McElroy, of the San Diego Diocese, banned parishes and Catholic Institutions in the Diocese of San Diego from hosting home school cooperatives. His reasoning was questionable; he gave two reasons. The first he said was the Church, and not parents are the first educators of children, and the second reason was they compete with Catholic Schools. His first reason is patently false, the Code of Canon Law, The Catechism of the Catholic Church, and our Sacramental Theology all state parents are the first educators. At the end of the week, he reversed his first reason complying with Church teaching that parents are the primary educators of their children. His second reason was suspect since Catholic Schools in San Diego are at nearly 100% capacity; it seems home school programs are not stealing away families from Catholic Schools. He did not reverse course on his second stated reason, in fact adding to it that "homeschooling is not inherently a ministry of the parish" and, therefore, cannot be given space in a Church institution. While that is true on face value, the Church does support the right of parents to choose whatever educational system they feel would be best for their child. The Diocese of San Diego allows many groups to meet on parish grounds, which are not "inherently" ministries of the parish. Some parishes enable all kinds of groups, particularly non-profits or all volunteer groups to use Church grounds.

Homeschooling is one of many educational options available to parents for educating their children such as excellent public schools, superior Catholic Schools, exclusive private schools, Charter Schools, and Homeschooling. Many options are available for families to choose from, and we all like to have choices, or at least to know what alternatives exist.

Homeschooling is the smallest of these markets, and has little if any impact on the other models, but it is a growing model. In 1983 there were 100,000 children in homeschooling across the country, by 1990 that number grew to 275,000; in 1997 the number exceeded 1 million. The pre-pandemic number of children in homeschooling is 3.3% of all children, during the pandemic it skyrocketed to 11% and, as of this year, 5.4%. Many home school curriculums were developed by Catholic Schools such as Our Lady of Victory, Seton Home Study School, Kolbe Academy, and Mother of Divine Grace to name but a few. Catholic Home School families make up a small percentage of all children in home-schooling; however they produce 11% of all vocations to the Diocesan priesthood, and 14% of all professed religious.

In every parish I have served, there have been home school families. I have found them to be as well schooled or better, than children in other educational institutions. Homeschooling is challenging for parents, and they need mutual support, and that is the reason for the growth of home school cooperatives.

I have to admit if I were a parent it would not be for me, I would choose a good Catholic School or an excellent public school. But I admire and appreciate the choice of homeschooling. Home school parents have made a big commitment and want to invest in their children like any other parent. I am sorry people like Cardinal McElroy oppose this choice. For the moment good lay people and supportive clergy appreciate and applaud home school families as one educational choice among many, and where it is a good fit. God Bless them!

Peace and Good – Fr. Bambrick

The Knights of Columbus is an international order of Catholic men who are called to lead the faith, protect our families, serve others and defend our Catholic values in this busy changing world.

The Knights Council #6201 will hold a membership drive after all Masses this weekend. Please consider joining. You will find that the Knights of Columbus membership brings Catholic men together in a powerful way.

We welcome Ramon and Maria Avila, Kyle and Jacquelyn Diana, and Michael and Lisa Ippolito to the parish. We are so happy you have joined us!

The next food drive will be the weekend of October 19-20th for Catholic Charities. They are requesting peanut butter, jelly, canned goods, cereals and non-perishable foods. Items may be left in the Gathering Space.

Please do not leave clothing or perishable foods in the Church. This will be the last food drive for the year. We thank you for your continued support of this important ministry.

World Mission Sunday will be celebrated on October 20th, and is a vital time for all Catholics to support the spread of the Gospel in mission territories. This year's theme, chosen by Pope Francis, is "Go and invite everyone to the banquet," emphasizing our call to bring God's love and message to all corners of the world. Contributions collected that weekend are crucial for sustaining the Church's mission around the world.

Prayer to St Michael
The Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.

Amen

Every October the Church celebrates Respect Life Month and as Catholics, we are called to cherish, defend, and protect those who are most vulnerable, from the beginning to the end of their lives. During the month of October, the Church asks us to reflect more deeply on the dignity of every human life. Here are some of the ways you can participate:

Pray the Rosary daily (Monday through Friday) at 8:00am in Church prior to the Daily Mass.

October 5-6 – donate to Roses for Life run by the Knights of Columbus to benefit programs protecting and respecting life and pregnancy help centers. Members of the Knights will be available after all Masses.

October 12-13 – Spiritual Adoption Program after all Masses. You will have the opportunity to select a pink or blue card and write the name of a boy or girl on the card and hang it on the Tree of Life praying that this child who is conceived will not be aborted. The Tree will remain in the Gathering Space by the Blessed Mother who will hold these unborn babies in her loving maternal care.

October 19-20—Participate in our drive to support moms and babies of Good Counsel Homes.

Prayer for the Synod on Synodality

We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name. With You alone to guide us, make Yourself at home in our hearts: Teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it. We are weak and sinful; do not let us promote disorder. Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path nor partiality influence our actions. Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right. All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time, in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen

The Annual Enrollment is a beautiful gift for special times in life and for the eternal rest of our faithful departed. We are very happy to pray for you and your loved ones.

The Annual Enrollment Mass is celebrated the First Friday of each month at 8:30am for a period of one (1) year—12 months.

In the Catholic Church, the anointing of the sick is a sacrament that is administered to a Catholic "who, having reached the age of reason, begins to be in danger due to sickness or old age". There is no need to wait until a person is at the point of death to receive the Sacrament. The Sacrament may be received at any time during a person's illness, especially before surgery or treatment. We suggest calling to receive the Sacrament before a person is in grave danger of death as it is not always possible to have a priest available at the actual time of death. If you would like to schedule the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick for a loved one, please contact the parish office.
