The Diocese of Trenton reports any allegations of sexual abuse to the appropriate law enforcement agencies. Anyone with an allegation is also encouraged to provide that information to local law enforcement authorities.

Dear Parish Family,

Last week's bulletin message was about St. Francis. We all know that Cardinal Jorge Mario Bergoglio, upon election as Supreme Roman Pontiff, took the name Francis in honor of St. Francis of Assisi. The life, witness, teachings, and prayers of St. Francis of Assisi resonated throughout Pope Francis's papacy. Among these was his great Encyclical Letter, a Pope's highest teaching document, which was Laudato Si. It took its title from St. Francis's most famous prayer of the same name. The prayer begins, "Praised by my Lord" (Laudato Si in Latin).

With this Encyclical, Pope Francis included ecology as one of the pieces of the Church's Social Teachings, thus building on the work of Pope Leo XIII and his predecessors. Laudato Si was the first Encyclical letter dedicated to ecology and raising awareness among Christians of God's command at the beginning of Creation, entrusting the first parents and their descendants to be stewards of all God created.

In July, Pope Leo XIV continued Pope Francis' dedication to the care of Creation by instituting the new Liturgical "Mass for Care of Creation," offering Mass at Borgo Laudato Si, an educational center at Castel Gondolfo, the summer papal residence. The Mass prayers for the care of Creation place Creation at the heart of the Church's liturgical life, thereby reinforcing the understanding that caring for Creation is a Christian vocation — a vital mission for the Church.

On September 5, Pope Leo returned to Borgo Laudato Si to inaugurate the Eco Center for the study and preservation of Creation. There are 135 acres dedicated to offering educational programs for students and professionals who want to learn more about the Catholic theology of care for the environment, as well as events and seminars featuring CEOs of major corporations. The aim is to produce zero waste as part of the land's commitment to sustainability.

Pope Leo said at the inauguration that the Eco Center is "a seed of hope that Pope Francis has left us as a legacy... which will endure by remaining faithful to its mandate: to be a tangible model of thought, structure and action, capable of fostering ecological conversion through education and catechesis."

The Eco Center's land will produce milk, olive oil, wine, honey, and aromatic herbs for teas and oils, which will be sold to support the educational initiatives. Pope Leo spent the day greeting and blessing Andalusian white horses, a newly born calf, and feeding fish in the Koi pond of the little Madonna Garden.

In his homily that day, he spoke about how often Jesus describes nature and Creation in the Gospels, and how the order of nature points to God's divine plan. Among God's creatures, he said, human beings stand out not only as the "most beautiful creature," but also as having the responsibility to safeguard all other creatures. "The care of Creation, then, represents a true vocation for every human being — a task to be carried out within Creation itself, never forgetting that we are creatures among creatures, and not creators."

With these beautiful words, he reminds us that caring for Creation is part of our vocation as Christian disciples of Jesus.

Peace and Good – Fr. Bambrick

Every October the Church celebrates Respect Life Month. As Catholics, we are called to cherish, defend, and protect those who are most vulnerable, from the beginning to the end of their lives. During the month of October, the Church asks us to reflect more deeply on the dignity of every human life. Here are some ways you can participate:

Pray the Rosary daily (Monday through Friday) at 8:00am in Church prior to the Daily Mass.

October 18-19—Spiritual Adoption Program after all Masses. You will have the opportunity to select a pink or blue card and write the name of a boy or girl on the card and hang it on the Tree of Life praying that this child who is conceived will not be aborted. The Tree will remain in the Gathering Space by the Blessed Mother who will hold these unborn babies in her loving maternal care.

Donate to Roses for Life run by the Knights of Columbus to benefit programs protecting and respecting life and pregnancy help centers. Members of the Knights will be available after all Masses.

World Mission Sunday
MISSIONARIES
HOPE
among the Peoples
October 19, 2025

World Mission Sunday, October 19, 2025 is the one day when the entire Church gathers in prayer and sacrificial giving to proclaim that the Gospel is for all peoples, in all lands. There will be a special collection the weekend of October 18-19 for this important mission.

Recently we've seen a trend where the missals have had their ribbons braided together which makes it impossible for people to use them. These books are meant to last for years as they include all three cycles. The ribbons are there to help people mark where the prayers and readings for the week are located. Please be respectful so they can last as long as possible as they are expensive. Thank you so much for your anticipated understanding.

Sherri Kroesch—Business Manager

The next monthly food drive will be the weekend of October 18-19 and will benefit Providence House. Requested items include: paper towels, toilet paper, individually packaged snacks, kids juice, back to school snacks, shelf-stable microwaveable meals (mac & cheese, soups, stews, oatmeal), cereals, and k-cups. As always, thank you for your generosity, Please do not leave perishable items, clothing or household goods in the Gathering Space.

Welcome to the following people who recently registered with the parish:

Sonoma Attalienti, Dominic Attalienti, Richard and Elaine Alessandro, Vincent and Josephine DeCrescenzo, and Emily Suzanne Palser. We are so happy you have joined us!

Evan VanArsdale and Brianna Nunez (2)

*I have found the one whom my soul loves....
Song of Solomon 3:4*

Congratulations to the newest member of our parish who has joined the parish family through the Sacrament of Baptism:

Prayer to St Michael The Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen

Joan Russell and Margaret Sweeney

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls and the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen
