Protecting God's Children - Making the Church a safe environment for all, particularly children and at-risk adults, is a major priority of the administration and staff of Saint Aloysius Church. Please take a look at the posters and "Safe Environment & Standards of Conduct Policy" that are posted on the bulletin board in the Gathering Space of the Church and on our website at <http://www.saintalloysiusonline.org/protecting-children>. Dear Parish Family-

We have entered November, traditionally called in Catholicism the 'Month of the Souls' when Catholics are reminded to pray for the Holy Souls in Purgatory, all of our beloved dead. This year because of Covid-19 we were unable to have the Book of Remembrance but we have put together a Parish Book of Remembrance with the names of all those who died this past year and for all dead relatives and friends of our parishioners symbolically. There is a grey binder book in front of the Statue of Our Lady of Fatima in the Sanctuary with a candle lit at every Mass during the month of November that serves as a symbolic Book of Remembrance for the whole parish. Tuesday November 3 was Election Day here in the USA and in the Liturgical Calendar the Feast of St. Martin de Porres. St. Martin was born Dec. 9, 1579 in Lima Peru, a long way away from our time but he can easily be a saint for our time. Let me explain, he was of mixed race and called a 'mulato'. His father was a Spanish Conquistador who had an illicit affair with a freed Panamanian slave woman. His father disowned Martin and his sister along with their mother as he was ashamed he produced black children. As a result Martin grew up in terrible poverty with the double stigma of being an illegitimate child and black.

Eventually his father came to some sense seeing his children so badly treated and provided some money for their education by the time Martin was 8 years old. Martin was very devout and wanted to be a Dominican but this was not possible because he was both black and illegitimate. Martin was undeterred, he made a deal with the Dominican Friars that he would be their house servant in return for the privilege of wearing the Dominican Habit. The Dominicans agreed because of his sincerity and determination.

Martin had been trained as a Barber and Medical healer. He spent his free time doctoring the sick for free and providing food for the hungry. Eventually his kindness changed the souls of the friars and they allowed him to take vows as a lay brother. He was very kind to all God's creations, much in the fashion of Pope Francis who urges us in his encyclical 'Laudato Si' to have a care and concern for all of creation. There is a wonderful story about how Martin's convent was overrun with mice and the friars set traps to kill the mice. Martin was moved with compassion for these poor hungry creatures, he called a meeting with the mice and promised to provide them with food at the back door of the convent every night in exchange for them leaving the convent, the mice agreed and left! While the story may or may not be true it serves as a window into the kind, caring, compassionate heart of this saint.

As a young person Martin was badly discriminated against and society shunned him but by the time of his death on Nov. 3, 1639 people thought him the living embodiment of holiness, a Saint, they had come to know the content of his character! So much so the Dominican Friars had to replace the habit on his corpse three times before he was buried because everyone wanted a piece of his habit as a relic of this saintly man whom they once despised because of the color of his skin and the his status as illegitimate by birth. course and not a black Archbishop playing golf at the same club as him.

He is a Saint for our times as we struggle with the legacy of racism in our country. As you probably know Archbishop Wilton Gregory of Washington, D.C. was elevated to Cardinal by Pope Francis, the first American of African descent to be made a Cardinal. In an interview he gave after being named a Cardinal the reporter asked him a question about racism in America. The Cardinal Designate answered with a personal story. While he was the Archbishop of Atlanta he was vacationing and a friend invited him to an exclusive country club in Palm Springs for a round of golf. While waiting outside the clubhouse door for his friend to arrive a luxury car pulled up, popped the trunk and a white man glanced at him and said, "Take the clubs out of my trunk and put them on my cart". Naturally the Archbishop was not dressed as an Archbishop but in golf clothing. Archbishop Gregory said he realized that man could not imagine a black man playing golf at an exclusive white club and the man thought the only black people there were service personnel. He said that while he had risen to be an Archbishop of a large Diocese he was still just a black man in America there to serve the white rich! He reflected that he did not think the man was overtly racist, probably never intentionally discriminated against black people but his attitude was certainly that all black men could ever achieve was to be service worker at a golf course and not a black Archbishop playing golf at the same club as him.

Racism certainly exists in our country and Archbishop Gregory's story is illustrative of the subtle racism that lingers in America. Archbishop Gregory you may know is credited with turning around the Sex Abuse Crisis in our Church when he served as President of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops in 2002. St. Martin de Porres' humility, courage, stamina and character changed the way people viewed his illegitimate birth and the color of his skin. Archbishop Gregory saved a failing largely white Church. Each of these men show us as another Martin taught us, Martin Luther King, it is not the color of our skin but the content of our character that counts!

Whatever the outcome of this election chaos we are living through let us strive to extinguish every form of racial injustice, overt or subtle, first in ourselves and then in our nation as well. The legacy of our time should be one of harmony and unity helping one another to build our character and lift one another up!
God Bless America!

Peace and Good – Fr. Bambrick

Adopt A Family

Since 2010, St. Aloysius has provided Christmas gifts to Jackson families who struggle all year to make ends meet then find it difficult to scrape together additional money for Christmas. You have been extremely generous over the years and everyone appreciates the effort.

This year, with the pandemic laying workers off or decreasing their hours, families are just getting by and your help is needed once again. The St. Vincent dePaul volunteers have put together a list of families who are in the most need. We have families of all sizes and they are ready to be adopted. We understand the challenge in shopping this year so, if you are uncomfortable going to stores, gift cards are certainly an option.

If you would like to adopt a family or need more information, contact Art at 732-278-8180 or email at akliem@aol.com or Pat at the Parish Office 732-370-0500 ext. 204.

Prayer to Our Lady Health of the Sick

O Mary,
you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and of hope.

We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm.

You, Salvation of the Roman People, know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial.

Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings
and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection. Amen.

Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God.
Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial,
but deliver us from every danger,
O glorious and blessed Virgin.

Amen.

A Coronavirus Prayer

Jesus Christ, you traveled through towns and villages “curing every disease and illness.” At your command, the sick were made well. Come to our aid now, in the midst of the global spread of the coronavirus, that we may experience your healing love.

Heal those who are sick with the virus.

May they regain their strength and health through quality medical care.

Heal us from our fear, which prevents nations from working together and neighbors from helping one another.

Heal us from our pride, which can make us claim invulnerability to a disease that knows no borders.

Jesus Christ, you traveled through towns and villages “curing every disease and illness.” Come to our aid now, that we may experience your healing love.

Jesus Christ, healer of all, stay by our side in this time of uncertainty and sorrow.

Be with those who have died from the virus. May they be at rest with you in your eternal peace.

Be with the families of those who are sick or have died. As they worry and grieve, defend them from illness and despair. May they know your peace.

Be with the doctors, nurses, researchers and all medical professionals who seek to heal and help those affected and who put themselves at risk in the process.

May they know your protection and peace.

Be with the leaders of all nations. Give them the foresight to act with charity and true concern for the well-being of the people they are meant to serve. Give them the wisdom to invest in long-term solutions that will help prepare for or prevent future outbreaks. May they know your peace, as they work together to achieve it on earth.

Whether we are home or abroad, surrounded by many people suffering from this illness or only a few, Jesus Christ, stay with us as we endure and mourn, persist and prepare.

In place of our anxiety, give us your peace.

Jesus Christ, heal us.

Prayer composed by Kerry Weber, Executive Editor, America Magazine
