THE DIOCESE OF TRENTON is committed to the initiatives outlined in the U.S. Bishop's Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People and to its own policies and guidelines in regard to the reporting and investigation of sexual abuse allegations involving minors.

If you have been sexually abused as a minor by a member of the clergy or anyone representing the Catholic Church, or if you know of someone who was, you can report that abuse through the diocesan ABUSE HOTLINE: 1-888-296-2965 or via e-mail at abuse-line@dioceseoftrenton.org.

The Diocese of Trenton reports any allegations of sexual abuse to the appropriate law enforcement agencies. Anyone with an allegation is also encouraged to provide that information to local law enforcement authorities.

Dear Parish Family,

On Thursday, October 24, 2024, Pope Francis issued the Encyclical Letter 'Dilexit Nos' from the Latin meaning, "He loved us". The subtitle being 'On the human and divine love of the heart of Jesus'. This is Pope Francis' fourth Encyclical Letter to the Church; encyclicals are the highest teaching of a Pope. In June, he had announced his intention of writing an Encyclical on the Sacred Heart and he said, "I believe it will do us great good to meditate on various aspects of the Lord's love, which can illuminate the path of ecclesial renewal and say something meaningful to a world that seems to have lost its heart."

The Italian Theologian and Bishop Bruno Forte, who was entrusted with presenting the encyclical, described it as "the key to his entire pontificate" and "the inspiring motive of [his] whole ministry and magisterium." He went further to say, "The encyclical calls us to be missionaries...who transmit love, who love therefore with witness, with presence alone, with words when needed, without the need to engage in proselytism."

Quoting Pope Benedict XVI, the encyclical says, "Every person needs a 'center' for his or her own life, a source of truth and goodness to draw upon in the events, situations, and struggles of daily existence. All of us, when we pause in silence, need to feel not only the beating of our own heart, but deeper still, the beating of a trustworthy presence, perceptible with faith's senses and yet much more real: the presence of Christ, the heart of the world" (Angelus, June 1, 2008).

The Holy Father Francis says we can find consolation in our sufferings within the heart of Jesus, "Our sufferings are joined to the suffering of Christ on the cross. If we believe that grace can bridge every distance, this means that Christ by his sufferings united himself to the sufferings of his disciples in every time and place. In this way, whenever we endure suffering, we can also experience the interior consolation of knowing that Christ suffers with us." The pope adds: "As we contemplate the heart of Christ, the incarnate synthesis of the Gospel, we can, following the example of St. Thérèse of the Child Jesus, 'place heartfelt trust not in ourselves but in the infinite mercy of a God who loves us unconditionally and has already given us everything in the cross of Jesus Christ.'"

The encyclical speaks of the missionary impulse every Christian should possess, "Jesus is calling you and sending you forth to spread goodness in our world...His call is one of service, a summons to do good, perhaps as a physician, a mother, a teacher, or a priest. Wherever you may be, you can hear his call and realize that he is sending you forth to carry out that mission."

He quotes Popes Leo XIII, Pius XII, John Paul II, Benedict XVI, St. Charles de Foucauld, St. Therese of the Child Jesus, St. Francis de Sales and of course St. Mary Margaret Alacoque. He also quotes the German Philosopher Martin Heidegger and the Russian Writer Fyodor Dostoevsky.

The encyclical is a mixture of devotion and action. Devotion to the Sacred Heart began as early as the 8th Century as a result of the writings of the early Church Fathers' teachings, that the Holy Spirit flowed out upon the Church from Jesus' pierced side, this wound that gives us access to His Heart. Devotion did not take hold until the 12th century, when St. Bonaventure addressed it in his theological writings, and later the mystical writings of the Medieval Mystics St. Mechtilde of Magdeburg, St. Julian Norwich, and St. Catherine of Siena popularized it. The seventeenth century saw an increase in devotion due to the instructions of St. Ignatius of Loyola (1491-1556), St. Francis de Sales (1567-1622), and St. John Eudes (1601-1680) who wrote a Mass dedicated to the Sacred Heart.

Modern devotion can be traced to the visions of the French Visitation nun Sr. Mary Margaret Alacoque who, three years after entering Religious Life, had visions of the Sacred Heart from Dec. 1674-June 1675. The Visitation Order was founded by St. Francis de Sales (1567-1622), and he directed them to devotion to the Sacred Heart. In her visions St. Mary Margaret was asked to promote devotion to the Sacred Heart on the First Friday of every month. Specifically, to go to confession, attend Mass, and receive Holy Communion on 9 successive Fridays; additionally, on the Thursday eve of First Friday, to keep a holy hour in memory of Jesus in Gethsemane. St. Mary Margaret said Jesus made 12 specific promises as a reward for keeping this honor:

- (1) "I will give them all the graces necessary in their state of life.
- (2) I will establish peace in their homes.
- (3) I will comfort them in all their afflictions.
- (4) I will be their secure refuge during life, and above all, in death.
- (5) I will bestow abundant blessings upon all their undertakings.
- (6) Sinners will find in my Heart the source and infinite ocean of mercy.
- (7) Lukewarm souls shall become fervent.
- (8) Fervent souls shall quickly mount to high perfection.
- (9) I will bless every place in which an image of my Heart is exposed and honored.
- (10) I will give to priests the gift of touching the most hardened hearts.
- (11) Those who shall promote this devotion shall have their names written in my Heart.
- (12) I promise you in the excessive mercy of my Heart that my all-powerful love will grant to all those who receive Holy Communion on the First Fridays in nine consecutive months the grace of final perseverance; they shall not die in my disgrace, nor without receiving their sacraments. My divine Heart shall be their safe refuge in this last moment."

Peace and Good – Fr. Bambrick

The Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary is a Holy Day of Obligation celebrated on Monday, December 9, 2024. Mass times are 8:30am, 12:00pm and 6:00pm.

Prayer to St Michael The Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen

The Knights of Columbus will be selling raffle tickets to help Send a Hero Home for the Holidays this weekend after all Masses. The program raises money to allow enlisted men and women in the service from our area military bases (Fort Dix, McGuire, Lakehurst, Earle, and Coast Guard Station in Sandy Hook), and who are the lowest paid, the opportunity to "go home" for the holidays. Last year, the Knights of Columbus across the state were able to help 220 service members get home.

Please help our military get home to see their families. Reward them for all they do for us. Thank you in advance for your support.

The Annual Enrollment is a beautiful gift for special times in life and for the eternal rest of our faithful departed. We are very happy to pray for you and your loved ones.

The Annual Enrollment Mass is celebrated the First Friday of each month at 8:30am for a period of one (1) year—12 months.

In the Catholic Church, the anointing of the sick is a sacrament that is administered to a Catholic "who, having reached the age of reason, begins to be in danger due to sickness or old age". There is no need to wait until a person is at the point of death to receive the Sacrament. The Sacrament may be received at any time during a person's illness, especially before surgery or treatment. We suggest calling to receive the Sacrament before a person is in grave danger of death as it is not always possible to have a priest available at the actual time of death. If you would like to schedule the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick for a loved one, please contact the parish office.

as our St. Vincent de Paul Society, which offers support for housing, warmth, food, and clothing. The tree will be located in the Gathering Space during the weekend of November 23-24. Tags will be available for affordable items and gift cards in various denominations. We appreciate your continued support in helping those in need and fulfilling our Corporal Works of Mercy.

The Spirit of Giving Charity, Community, Collaboration

The Adopt A Family Christmas Program has been assisting Jackson families with Christmas gifts since 2010. As you know, the cost of everything has increased dramatically finding families choosing to 'heat or eat' and definitely feeling the pain as Thanksgiving and Christmas approach.

St. Vincent dePaul has put together a list of families who are in the most need. We have families of all sizes who are ready to be adopted. If you would like to adopt a family this Christmas, we would be happy to pair you with a family. If you're not up to shopping and would rather make a donation or drop offer a gift card, we appreciate your generosity and have volunteers who can shop on your behalf. Volunteers will be in the Gathering Space the weekends of November 16th and 17th with families who wish to be adopted.

Please contact either Art Kliemisch at 732-961-7556 or Pat Mulholland at the St. Aloysius Parish Office at 732-370-0500 ext. 204 to obtain more information on this program. Thank you and may God bless you and your family during this Christmas season and always.

Thank you to all parishioners who accepted flags after Mass last weekend. Your donations will help the Jackson American Legion assist Veterans and active duty military, and enable Post 504 participation in our many community/youth programs. Your support is much appreciated. ALL VETERANS: If you do not currently belong to a Veteran Service organization, we invite you to consider membership in our Jackson American Legion Post 504. We will be happy to send you "no obligation" information about the legion and our post if you simply send an email to Commander Barry Kakos BJK1946@aol.com or call Barry at 732-600-8912. YOU DESERVE TO BELONG!!! Dues are only $40 per year. We have 206 members waiting to meet you.

Please see below for reminders about upcoming events. To RSVP to any of the following, please contact Mrs. Jen Petrillo at 732-370-1515 ext. 311 or jpetrillo@saintaloyusonline.org. Events are open to teens in grades 8 through 12. **Please keep in mind that it is a diocesan policy that parents should be copied on e-mail communication between parish staff/volunteers and those under 18.*

Turkey Dinner Drive: Our parish's annual Turkey Dinner Drive will take place on Saturday, November 23rd! 6 to 8 teen volunteers are needed to assist with organizing and packing up donated meals from 8:00 am to 11:45 am. Please RSVP by November 16th if you are able to serve.

December AYM Gathering: "How well do you know your Mother?" On Sunday, December 8th, come join us for an afternoon of trivia based on the life and approved apparitions of the Blessed Mother, along with pizza and prayer, as we turn our minds and hearts to the Immaculate Conception. We will meet in the Gathering Space immediately following the 10:30 am Mass, and will head over to Morello Hall together. Pick up time is 1:00 pm. Please RSVP by December 5th.

Christmas Card Service Project: On Sunday, December 22nd, we will have our annual service project of making Christmas cards for Bartley Nursing Home residents. Teens are invited to attend the 10:30 am Mass, and then meet in the Gathering Space immediately following Mass so that we can head into Morello Hall together. Light snacks will be served. Pick up time is 1:00 pm. Please RSVP by Thursday, December 19th.

More info to come on future events! Please stay tuned!

New to Walking with Purpose? Walking with Purpose is a Catholic Bible study for women that aims to bring women to a deeper personal relationship with Christ. Through personal study and small group discussions, the group helps to link our everyday challenges with solutions given to us through the teachings of Christ and the Catholic Church. At WWP, we believe that relationships matter, truth matters, and you matter! Our group meets on Thursday evenings at 7:00pm in Morello Hall. No previous bible study experience is needed and women of all seasons are invited. We have a rolling admission and there's always room for one more at the table! Join us on November 21st.
