THE DIOCESE OF TRENTON is committed to the initiatives outlined in the U.S. Bishop's Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People and to its own policies and guidelines in regard to the reporting and investigation of sexual abuse allegations involving minors.

If you have been sexually abused as a minor by a member of the clergy or anyone representing the Catholic Church, or if you know of someone who was, you can report that abuse through the diocesan ABUSE HOTLINE: 1-888-296-2965 or via e-mail at abuse-line@dioceseoftrenton.org.

The Diocese of Trenton reports any allegations of sexual abuse to the appropriate law enforcement agencies. Anyone with an allegation is also encouraged to provide that information to local law enforcement authorities.

Dear Parish Family-

The American writer, O. Henry said, "Thanksgiving Day is the one day that is purely American". What a great day it is, the whole nation giving thanks to God for the greatest republic in the history of humanity. How blessed we are to have been born here or immigrated here and to live in freedom. Flawed we are, but always striving for a "more perfect union".

This Thanksgiving we are most grateful for Msgr. Joe's more than 20 years of weekend assistance at the parish; made all the more poignant in his leaving us for the next stretch of road on the journey of life. So grateful for the outpouring of support for him from so many upon hearing the news last weekend of his decision to enter transitional living close to his family in Northern New Jersey. Please join us next Sunday after the 10:30am Mass for a farewell breakfast in Morello Hall. There will be gratitude books available for you to leave him a brief heartfelt message.

The work on the roof was delayed due to a material shortage which was supposed to arrive on Tuesday. It is a shame since the weather was excellent, but the roofers worked on three small flat roofs that were part of the project as well. The roofers were ahead of schedule, but the delay in materials has put us back a bit. Progress non-the-less! At least the inside is now dry, for the most part, as the worst leaks were under the sections replaced.

The new doors should be finished when you enter Church this weekend. Each door can be sponsored for a "memorial" or "in honor of". There are a total of 8 doors who are looking for sponsors; a donor gift of $15,000 per door is requested and a form is in the bulletin. The eight saints depicted are all from the time of Jesus and constitute "firsts". The inside doors depict St. Elizabeth, the relative of the Virgin Mary who visited her after the revelation of the Archangel Gabriel; and, Elizabeth, the first to proclaim Jesus as Lord and Messiah, "Who is it that the Mother of my Lord should come to me". Then, there is St. Paul, the great Apostle to the Gentiles, who is the first new Apostle chosen by Jesus after the resurrection. Next to St. Paul is St. Lydia, the first European to accept Christianity and to be baptized by St. Paul in Greece. Then, St. Mary Magdalene, the first witness and herald of the Resurrection. The outside doors are the first four Apostles, called and chosen by Jesus on the Sea of Galilee; Peter, and his brother Andrew and, James and his brother, John. These four apostles are collectively known as "The First Called".

The next major project will be the electrical and lighting system in the Church once we recover from the current projects costs.

Finally, I leave you with a quote from the American writer/poet Henry Van Dyke, "Gratitude is the inward feeling of kindness received. Thankfulness is the natural impulse to express that feeling. Thanksgiving is the following of that impulse."

Happy Thanksgiving to all! Mass on Thanksgiving Day will be at 8:30am in the Church as no roof work will be taking place that day.

Peace and Good – Fr. Bambrick

Thank you to everyone who assisted with the Turkey Drive this year. Whether you were a driver, parking lot assistant, food checker or a generous parishioner who donated a dinner by shopping or offering a monetary donation, we are grateful for you! Final numbers will be reported in a future bulletin but our Jackson neighbors and food pantries are forever grateful for your continued generosity.

The Spirit of Giving
Charity, Community, Collaboration

The Adopt A Family Christmas Program has been assisting Jackson families with Christmas gifts since 2010. As you know, the cost of everything has increased dramatically finding families choosing to 'heat or eat' and definitely feeling the pain as Thanksgiving and Christmas approach.

St. Vincent dePaul has put together a list of families who are in the most need. We have families of all sizes who are ready to be adopted. If you would like to adopt a family this Christmas, we would be happy to pair you with a family. Volunteers will be in the Gathering Space this weekend after all Masses with families who are ready to be adopted. If you're not up to shopping and would rather make a donation or drop off a gift card, we appreciate your generosity and have volunteers who can shop on your behalf. Donations may be dropped off or mailed in to the parish office. Checks should be made payable to St. Vincent dePaul.

Please contact either Art Kliemisch at 732-961-7556 or Pat Mulholland at the St. Aloysius Parish Office at 732-370-0500 ext. 204 to obtain more information on this program. Thank you and may God bless you and your family during this Christmas season and always.

The Giving Tree this year will benefit Good Counsel Homes and Jackson residents who contact St. Vincent dePaul needing help with rent, car repairs, heat, electric, food, clothing for children and other essential expenditures. The tree will be in the Gathering Space the weekend of November 26th with gift tags for both organizations. Gifts for Good Counsel Homes should be returned un-wrapped with the tag no later than December 15th. St. Vincent dePaul tags may be returned to the parish office at any time.

Thanksgiving Day Mass

Thursday, November 23
at 8:30am
in the Church

From Fr. Bambrick, Fr. RJ, Msgr. Joe, Deacon Rene, Deacon Vin, Deacon Uku along with the Parish and Religious Education staff, we wish you all a Happy and Blessed Thanksgiving.
Enjoy the day with family and friends.

Prayer for the Synod on Synodality

We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name. With You alone to guide us, make Yourself at home in our hearts: Teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it. We are weak and sinful; do not let us promote disorder. Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path nor partiality influence our actions. Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right. All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time, in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen.

Prayer to St. Michael

Saint Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into Hell Satan and the other evil spirits who prowl about the world for the ruin of souls. Amen

The Annual Enrollment is a beautiful gift for special times in life and for the eternal rest of our faithful departed. We are very happy to pray for you and your loved ones.

The Annual Enrollment Mass is celebrated the First Friday of each month at 8:30am for a period of one (1) year—12 months.

Christian Book Study—meet on the first and third Tuesday of the month, at 10am in the parish office. TO JOIN: purchase “Understanding the Sacraments: A Guide for Prayer and Study” by Rev. Peter Stravinkskas. We’d love to have you join us at our next Tuesday meeting.

St. Aloysius Small Christian Communities offer many ways to enrich your spiritual life. They can become a place to get together and provide a sense of belonging with a familiar face to then greet you at Mass. Groups meet in homes and the parish office. For more information, contact Nancy at 732-928-1321.

Weekly Bible Study - Join Fr. RJ each Tuesday at 2:30pm in the parish office. No RSVP required. We look forward to seeing you!

Have you or someone you love missed out on one or more of their sacraments? Do you know someone who wants to be Catholic? We have a fantastic community in our RCIA program led by a team of wonderful faith filled people who act as catechists and can help them prepare for the gift of encountering the Lord in the Sacraments of the Church. Our parish would love to help them be all they can be in the faith! Call the parish office for more information.

Catholic dads! The Saint Aloysius Men’s group looks to help Catholic fathers grow in their faith. Join us Saturday mornings for bagels and coffee (6:30am), followed by a video (7am) as we help one another become better Catholic fathers-husbands-men. We start early and finish early so you don’t miss any part of your day. For more information or to register email David at dfurb@aol.com.

Saint Aloysius’ Rosarians will be running a trip to the Sight and Sound Theater for the Christmas Show, December 6. Cost is $150 per person and includes a ticket to the show, transportation, buffet lunch at the Fulton Steamboat and gratuities. Call Linda Dougherty at 908-309-4843 to reserve your ticket. Payment may be made by check payable to St. Aloysius Church.

Food for Thought: “Jesus is not an idea, a sentiment, a memory! Jesus is a ‘person,’ always alive and present with us! Love Jesus present in the Eucharist. He is present in a sacrificial way in Holy Mass, which renews the Sacrifice of the Cross. To go to Mass means going to Calvary to meet him, our Redeemer. He comes to us in Holy Communion and remains present in the tabernacles of our churches, for he is our friend.” - Pope St. John Paul II, Address to Italian youth, Nov. 8, 1978
