Dear Parish Family,

On this Solemnity of Christ the King, we begin a new Liturgical Cycle reminding us that God is part of the cycle of our lives, and like the circle, no beginning or end. I also wish each of you a Happy Thanksgiving this Thursday. Wherever you are, may it be one of blessing, warmth and thanks, both for what God has given and, what He may have taken, for in the giving and the taking, we are reminded all belong to Him! Thanks be to God.

Please accept this poem in the spirit of the Season, a lovely one by the American Poet John Greenleaf Whittier that captures the season of Thanksgiving.

The Pumpkin

By John Greenleaf Whittier

Oh, greenly and fair in the lands of the sun,
 The vines of the gourd and the rich melon run,
 And the rock and the tree and the cottage enfold,
 With broad leaves all greenness and blossoms all gold,
 Like that which o'er Nineveh's prophet once grew,
 While he waited to know that his warning was true,
 And longed for the storm-cloud, and listened in vain
 For the rush of the whirlwind and red fire-rain.

On the banks of the Xenil the dark Spanish maiden
 Comes up with the fruit of the tangled vine laden;
 And the Creole of Cuba laughs out to behold
 Through orange-leaves shining the broad spheres of gold;
 Yet with dearer delight from his home in the North,
 On the fields of his harvest the Yankee looks forth,
 Where crook-necks are coiling and yellow fruit shines,
 And the sun of September melts down on his vines.

Ah! on Thanksgiving day, when from East and from West,
 From North and from South come the pilgrim and guest,
 When the gray-haired New Englander sees round his board
 The old broken links of affection restored,
 When the care-wearied man seeks his mother once more,
 And the worn matron smiles where the girl smiled before,
 What moistens the lip and what brightens the eye?
 What calls back the past, like the rich Pumpkin pie?

Oh, fruit loved of boyhood! the old days recalling,
 When wood-grapes were purpling and brown nuts were falling!
 When wild, ugly faces we carved in its skin,
 Glaring out through the dark with a candle within!
 When we laughed round the corn-heap, with hearts all in tune,
 Our chair a broad pumpkin,—our lantern the moon,
 Telling tales of the fairy who travelled like steam,
 In a pumpkin-shell coach, with two rats for her team!

Then thanks for thy present! none sweeter or better
 E'er smoked from an oven or circled a platter!
 Fairer hands never wrought at a pastry more fine,
 Brighter eyes never watched o'er its baking, than thine!
 And the prayer, which my mouth is too full to express,
 Swells my heart that thy shadow may never be less,
 That the days of thy lot may be lengthened below,
 And the fame of thy worth like a pumpkin-vine grow,
 And thy life be as sweet, and its last sunset sky
 Golden-tinted and fair as thy own Pumpkin pie!

Peace and good, and blessings this Thanksgiving 2024!

Fr. Bambrick

The Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary is a Holy Day of Obligation celebrated on Monday, December 9, 2024. Mass times are 8:30am, 12:00pm and 6:00pm.

Prayer to St Michael The Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
 Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.

Amen

This year, The Giving Tree will benefit Good Counsel Homes by providing baby items and gifts for mothers, as well as our St. Vincent de Paul Society, which offers support for housing, warmth, food, and clothing all year long. The tree will be in the Gathering Space until all tags are gone. Tags will be available for affordable items, and gift cards in various denominations. Purchased items may be returned to the Giving Tree (unwrapped with the tag on) any weekend between now and December 15th. Gift cards should be returned to the parish office. Contact the parish office with any questions. We appreciate your continued support in helping those in need.

In the Catholic Church, the anointing of the sick is a sacrament that is administered to a Catholic "who, having reached the age of reason, begins to be in danger due to sickness or old age". There is no need to wait until a person is at the point of death to receive the Sacrament. The Sacrament may be received at any time during a person's illness, especially before surgery or treatment. We suggest calling to receive the Sacrament before a person is in grave danger of death as it is not always possible to have a priest available at the actual time of death. If you would like to schedule the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick for a loved one, please contact the parish office.

The St. Vincent dePaul Adopt A Family Christmas Program has been assisting Jackson families with Christmas gifts since 2010. As you know, the cost of everything has increased dramatically finding families choosing to “heat or eat”, and definitely feeling the pain as Thanksgiving and Christmas approach.

St. Vincent dePaul has put together a list of families who are in the most need. We have families of all sizes who are ready to be adopted. If you would like to adopt a family this Christmas, and missed us last weekend, contact Art at 732-961-7556 or Pat at the parish office and we can pair you with a family. If you're not up to shopping and would rather make a donation or offer a gift card, we appreciate your generosity. Donations and gift cards can be mailed or dropped off to the parish office.

Thank you for your continued support. If you're interested in helping others in Jackson throughout the year, we invite you to our next General Meeting, Monday, November 25th at 7:00pm in Morello Hall. New members are always welcome. Come see how you can make a difference.
