Protecting God's Children - Making the Church a safe environment for all, particularly children and at-risk adults, is a major priority of the administration and staff of Saint Aloysius Church. Please take a look at the posters and "Safe Environment & Standards of Conduct Policy" that are posted on the bulletin board in the Gathering Space of the Church and on our website at <http://www.saintalloysiusonline.org/protecting-children>. If you have any questions or would like to learn more about how to make our church, homes and community safer, please contact Jen Petrillo at 732-370-1515 ext. 311 or jpetrillo@saintalloysiusonline.org.

Dear Parish Family-

All the upheaval in our Country due to the unlawful execution of George Floyd is also producing constructive dialogue and opportunities to see and hear things in a different way. In a way that is transformative if we participate in the process in a constructive way.

The Knights of Columbus magazine, Columbia, in the July/August edition has a reflection offered by a young black Louisiana priest Fr. Joshua Johnson partially subtitled, “the task of racial reconciliation in light of the Church’s mission”.

In this article under the title ‘A Seat at the Table’ he says, “We need to start with silence and prayer-listening and spending time with the Lord. We must also spend time with, listen to and learn from our brothers and sisters in Christ who have been hurting. We need to fast from speaking so that we can hear their stories about how they’ve been impacted by the unjust policies and practices and by racial prejudice and discrimination”

These words echoed in my head on Monday when I was blessed to able to accept an invitation to attend a meeting with the United States Department of Justice Division on Civil Rights, the New Jersey Attorney General’s Office, the Ocean County Prosecutor’s Office, Jackson Township Police Department, Jackson Township Faith Leaders, Jackson Educators, Jackson Township youth and other concerned citizens.

The meeting opened and closed with a prayer. It was largely lead by four highly intelligent and articulate black youth who spoke about their experience of racial discrimination in our schools and community. At one point I felt my eyes beginning to water and feel surge of sadness for these young people who had to endure such unpleasant and unjust discrimination right here in our community.

One spoke of a clear and unseen line which she described as being at an exact geographic place marked by two bisecting roads, she does not venture beyond that line for fear of her safety. I was overwhelmed to think of how awful that is for any youth in a free country. No one should fear, especially no youth, to freely move about our township because of the color of their skin or any other reason, our youth should feel safe everywhere in our community.

Another spoke of being called the “N” word repeatedly in school with no repercussions for the assailant. Another spoke of a poster using the same racially charged word. Another told of continuing bullying by a white athlete who could say what he wanted with abandon because his skill on the field protected and entitled him to views of white supremacy. These are but a few of the terrible and immoral stories of degrading human behavior systematically used to degrade the dignity of these youth. These stories expressed terrible, reprehensible and atrocious behavior that must be changed.

As Fr. Johnson noted we need to listen prayerfully as Christians to these stories of human suffering and hurt. Sometimes that also means fasting from speaking so as to hear their stories. I spent those four hours fasting from speaking and carefully listening to the experience of black men, women and youth and their experience of unjust policies, practices and racial prejudice and discrimination. It lifted veil from my eyes to discrimination happening here in our community.

These are the dialogues we need to have as God fearing people, people who claim Christ and his message of love as our own story. I invite all of us to have these listening sessions with our friends and relatives of color. Their experience and our perceptions can only change for the better and lead us to be a better nation, one where youth won't fear an invisible line or being called horrible things because of the color of their skin. I can only speak for myself but I would not want those demeaning things said to me. Jesus tells us love your neighbor as yourself. In the parable of the last judgment he warns us that a claim of ignorance to the suffering of others will not be accepted by God as an excuse.

Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King famously said, “In the end, we will not remember the words of our enemies but the silence of our friends.” He was reminding us, good people, we have to speak up and not tolerate injustice in front of us, we have an obligation to the Common Good of All. In the Catholic Confiteor we pray something very similar when we pray, “For what I have done and what I have failed to do”, failing to stand up to injustice is a sin we confess to God. Let us strive avoid committing the sin of failing to act and be people who stand up for what is right. Jesus demands we stand up and be counted among the blessed and he demands we go beyond our own prejudices and hesitations to be people of Holy Action inspired by the Grace of the Spirit!

Peace and Good – Fr. Bambrick

Prayer to Our Lady Health of the Sick

O Mary,
you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and of hope.

We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm.

You, Salvation of the Roman People, know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial.

Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings
and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection. Amen.

Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God.
Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial,
but deliver us from every danger,
O glorious and blessed Virgin.

Amen.

A Coronavirus Prayer

Jesus Christ, you traveled through towns and villages “curing every disease and illness.” At your command, the sick were made well. Come to our aid now, in the midst of the global spread of the coronavirus, that we may experience your healing love.

Heal those who are sick with the virus.

May they regain their strength and health through quality medical care.

Heal us from our fear, which prevents nations from working together and neighbors from helping one another.

Heal us from our pride, which can make us claim invulnerability to a disease that knows no borders.

Jesus Christ, you traveled through towns and villages “curing every disease and illness.” Come to our aid now, that we may experience your healing love.

Jesus Christ, healer of all, stay by our side in this time of uncertainty and sorrow.

Be with those who have died from the virus. May they be at rest with you in your eternal peace.

Be with the families of those who are sick or have died. As they worry and grieve, defend them from illness and despair. May they know your peace.

Be with the doctors, nurses, researchers and all medical professionals who seek to heal and help those affected and who put themselves at risk in the process.

May they know your protection and peace.

Be with the leaders of all nations. Give them the foresight to act with charity and true concern for the well-being of the people they are meant to serve. Give them the wisdom to invest in long-term solutions that will help prepare for or prevent future outbreaks. May they know your peace, as they work together to achieve it on earth.

Whether we are home or abroad, surrounded by many people suffering from this illness or only a few, Jesus Christ, stay with us as we endure and mourn, persist and prepare.

In place of our anxiety, give us your peace.

Jesus Christ, heal us.

Prayer composed by Kerry Weber, Executive Editor, America Magazine
