Dear Parish Family,

Last Sunday we celebrated the Solemnity of All Saints, honoring both those who have been canonized and those whose names are known only to God. The saints come from every walk of life. Some were good from the start, while others were rotten to the core, but at some point, they accepted God's grace and were redeemed. Their great company is a pageant of hope, a procession of love, and a march of faith.

The next day was All Souls, when we pray for those in Purgatory as they are purified and prepared to join the great company of Saints who stand before the Almighty praising Him for all eternity. As I read the list of people whose funerals were held at St. Aloysius this past year, I realized how many I knew personally. Many might assume we know everyone whose funeral is here, but that's not always true. Sometimes they are relatives of parishioners or Catholics from town who never attended Mass. Often, we don't know them at all. This year, though, the list included several active parishioners—good people we miss. As I read their names, I remembered their faces and stories. It comforts me to know we will see each other again in the Father's house. When someone dies, we naturally feel the pain of loss and sadness, but as people of faith, we grieve with hope, as St. Paul reminds us. Their souls are in God's hands, and they are at peace.

Thankfully, the 'silly season' has ended; unlike death, it's short-lived. By which I mean the elections. Elections have always been contentious, but each year they seem to get more absurd and, frankly, nastier. Politicians seem to go lower each time, or as some say, sink further into "the swamp." This year, our town's election cycle was especially rough. Ironically, both sides were from the same political party, which made things even stranger, and both reached new lows. While both sides claimed to dislike religious involvement, they still sought support from churches. One group even came to the 10:30am Mass on All Saints, though they had never attended before, and at least one non-Catholic received Holy Communion. After Mass, the deacon spoke to that politician and explained that campaigning in church is not allowed, and that they should not have received Communion since they are not in communion with our Church. Sadly, when people are desperate for votes, they may cross lines they shouldn't. I am glad the election is over, but I doubt things will calm down soon. It would be good if politicians remembered that the word 'politician' comes from the Greek for "one who serves the people," not themselves!!

As you make your way through November, the month of the Souls, remember to pray for the dead, visit a cemetery, and comfort someone who is grieving. We are all in this together, and we should all work to help each other become saints!

If you are making an RMD or end-of-year donation, please consider our parish as a beneficiary of your generosity. All donations received will go toward bringing down our debt by making additional principal payments on one of our 3 loans. If you wish the donation to be used in a different way, please state that when you make it. One donor two weeks ago made such a request, and we have honored it.

I want to thank some parishioners who gave of their talent to help fix some issues: James, Joe, Tom, and Ted! Thank you!

Peace and Good - Fr. Bambrick

you are having a difficult time following the loss of a loved one, come and experience God's love and compassion with others on a similar journey. The group begins meeting Monday, November 9th at 1:30pm in the parish office. There is no cost to the program, but participants are asked to purchase the book The New Day Journal by Mauryeen O'Brien on their own. Register at the parish office. Group size is limited. All communication will be confidential.

'Tis the season for giving!

The holidays are approaching, and, as in previous years, some of our neighbors in Jackson are finding it difficult to provide Christmas for their children. Volunteers from our St. Vincent de Paul Society will be in the Gathering Space on the weekends of November 14/15, 21/22, and 28/29, with information about families hoping to be adopted for Christmas. If you would like to help make Christmas happen for a Jackson family, please contact Art at 732-278-8180.

We welcome our new parishioners Angela Cruz, Martin and Lorraine Marzullo, Lazaro and Magemma Musni, and Maria Castro and Carlos Marquina We are so happy you are here!

As the autumn weather cools down, come warm up with your parish family!

Please join us in Morello Hall on Sunday, November 8th, following the 10:30am Mass. Enjoy a hot cup of coffee, a fresh donut, and some wonderful warm fellowship. It is the perfect opportunity to catch up with old friends and welcome new families to our community.

After all Masses this weekend, please accept an American Flag from the members of the Jackson American Legion Post 504, in advance of Veterans Day (November 11th). Flags are FREE, but your donations will help the Legion assist Veterans and active military, and enable Legion participation in our many community/youth programs. Your support is appreciated!!

📢 Attention All Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion (EMHOCs) and Lectors

We will hold a meeting for all current Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion and Readers, as well as anyone interested in joining these vital ministries on Saturday, November 14th at 2pm in the Church.
We will cover updated liturgical guidelines, scheduling adjustments, and important procedures for the upcoming liturgical season. Current ministers are strongly encouraged to attend so we can align our practices and ensure our liturgies run smoothly. If you are interested in joining either ministry for the first time, this is the perfect place to start! We will distribute reader workbooks at the meeting.

Please RSVP to Jeanette Bruno at dove1022@aim.com.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls and the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen
